1381
4

JOURNAL OF HOUSING

INDEX

FOR THE YEAR 1962

VOLUME 19

PART 2, THE JOURNAL OF HOUSING, MARCH, 1963

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF HOUSING AND REDEVELOPMENT OFFICIALS
1413 K STREET, N.W. - WASHINGTON 5, D.C.

A

Abend, Stephen N.: Urban renewal design contest winner, 361.

Abrams, Charles: Participant in UN meeting on international housing (illus.), 180.

ACTION-HOUSING, INC. May get Ford Foundation help for social and physical renewal work, 9; Pittsburgh Creates New Community--tests out materials, methods, philosophies (illus.), 128.

Acuff, John E., Jr.: 331.

Adams, Melvin J.: 289.

ADMINISTRATION. Two housing authorities try keysort system for tenant occupancy data (illus.), 153; URA revises relocation requirements, 248; The General Accounting Office performs housing, renewal role via spot-check audits, 249; The Administrator's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding, 365.

ADVERTISERS. Aeroline Building Products, 413; Ajax Appliance Co., 12, 56, 112, 173, 226, 286, 359, 410, 499, 553; Beach Refrigerator Company, 13, 56, 112, 173, 229, 291, 353, 420, 500, 548; Best Manufacturing Co., 12, 55, 110, 173, 226, 285, 359, 417, 498, 548; Brown Stove Works, Inc., 104, 226, 351, 411; Chapman Chemical Company, 106, 228, 356, 412; City-Wide Refrigeration Co., 9, 56, 112, 173, 229, 285, 352, 424, 498, 551; Corrosion Services, Inc., 3; Crest Mfg. Co., Inc., 57, 113, 224, 358, 425, 552; Dempster Brothers, Inc., 406; Eagle Range & Manufacturing Company, 421; Gestetner Corporation, 8; Hardwick Stove Company, 407; Hutch Manufacturing Company, 413; International Harvester, 423; Johns Hopkins Press, 225; Kansas City, Kansas, Urban Renewal Agency, 490; McGraw-Hill Book Co., 10, 48, 54, 100, 103, 164, 174, 216, 232, 280, 288, 344, 364, 404, 484, 488, 540, 546, 600; Mailboxes, Inc., 229, 356, 411, 498; Marco Products Co., 419; Miller Manufacturing Co., 225, 289, 354, 412; National Chemsearch Corporation, 172; Noresco, Inc., 218; Ohio Tool & Engineering Co., 58, 112, 227, 352, 410, 549; Phillipsburg, New Jersey, Housing Authority, 495; Pier-Angeli Co., 9, 58, 115, 290, 355, 420, 500, 551; Ruberoid Co., 2, 166, 418, 539; Rusco Industries, Inc., 346, 422, 496, 542; Sexauer Manufacturing Co., 51, 170, 409; Sloan Valve Company, 50, 102, 222, 350, 408, 547; Solar Sales Corp., 12, 57; Toilaflex, 286, 353, 426, 499, 550; Weiser Co., 6, 111, 223, 357, 410, 494; Weiss & Klau, 9; Wichita, Kansas, Urban Renewal Agency, 171; Woodfinishing Products Company, 228. (See also Professional Directory.)

AESTHETICS. Story of architectural competitions in Philadelphia, San Francisco, Washington, D. C., and Santa Monica (illus.), 17; Cornell University sponsors meeting on "Planning for Urban Aesthetics," 38; Historic preservation via urban renewal, 297; Journal issue on historic preservation praised by readers, 355; Cincinnati AIA chapter forms "anti-ugly" committee similar to AIA national aesthetics committee, 373; Round-up of use of renewal land by cities for cultural centers (illus.), 520. (See also Design, Historic Preservation.)

AGED, HOUSING FOR. (See Elderly, Housing for.)

Agency for International Development. HHFA lends personnel for housing and urban development projects (illus.), 360; Gives University of Michigan grant to study use of plastics for low-cost houses, 361.

Aitken, Judith: Participant in NAHRO Southwest conference (illus.), 332.

Akahoshi, George T.: Economic analysis should be part of a CRP (community renewal program), 71.

Alabama Association of Housing Authorities. Annual meeting and election of officers, 293.

Alaska. Law says no bias in publicly assisted housing, 320.

Albany, New York. State and city both want 98.5-acre downtown site, 258.

Alcoa Urban Development Corporation. Purchases five renewal projects from Zeckendorf, 580.

Alexander, James R.: Praises NAHRO Journal, 499.

Alexandria, Virginia. Celebrates 25th anniversary of public housing, 401.

Alinsky, Saul E.: Criticizes comment on his work in Journal editorial, 114.

All-America City Awards. Renewal story of three cities cited, 142.

Allen, T. F.: Asks to reprint article in Journal on renewal and transportation planning, 499.

Allen, William R.: Luncheon speaker at NAHRO's Middle Atlantic Regional conference, 389.

Alliance for Progress. Makes housing instrument of American foreign policy (illus.), 22.

Altman, Charles B.: Named director of planning and production branch of PHA, 15.

American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees. Finances housing projects in Milwaukee, Cambridge, Massachusetts, Los Angeles, and Hawaii, 318.

American Institute of Architects. Give Ohio State professors scholarship to complete research on design, 38; Makes grant for urban affairs conference for newspaper reporters, 360; Sponsors project for practical experience in housing and urban renewal for graduate students, 552.

American Institute of Planners. To make awards for outstanding local planning, 57; Agree with traffic engineers on each other's areas of responsibility for urban transportation, 109.

American Municipal Association. One of associations discussing federal-local issues at "workable program" meeting with HHFA, 230.

Anderson, Raymond A.: Says good code enforcement must be service-oriented, 356.

Andrich, Joseph N.: 224.

ANTI-BIAS LAWS. (See Legislation, State, Discrimination, Open Occupancy, Integration.)

ARCHITECTURE. Story of competitions in Philadelphia, San Francisco, Washington, D. C., and Santa Monica (illus.), 17; Architects Get in Rehab Act in conservation areas of 20 cities (illus.), 63; First Cities to Use New Demonstration Rehab Program Use Architects (illus.), 65; Letters to editor on Journal article concerning use of architectural consultants, 111; Journal reader praises article on contribution of architects to urban renewal, 288; Architects helping property owners in Providence Rhode Island conservation areas, (illus.), 326; Winners of urban renewal design contest announced, 361; The Architect's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding, 375; Public Housing Architecture evaluated from PWA days up to 1962 (illus.), 446; Journal reader praises work of architect for Richmond, California, housing project, 494.

Area Redevelopment Administration. Coordinator of new public works program, 501.

Arizona. Passes condominium legislation, 320.

Arkansas. Reactivates state planning commission, 136; Campaign under way for home rule on bonded indebtedness, 320; Voters remove 5-mill limitation on taxes for city operations and bond issues, 517.

Arkansas Council of Housing Authorities. Annual meeting and election of officers, 45.

Arnold, Ellis B.: 546.

Ascher, Charles S.: Raises questions about condominiums, 117; Participant in UN meeting on international housing (illus.), 181; Honored as housing pioneer (port.), 572.

Asheville, North Carolina. Uses renewal land for cultural facilities, 520.

Ashworth, Kenneth: Washington Report, 14, 61, 119, 178, 230, 294, 362, 428, 501, 554; Leaves NAHRO to become assistant to executive director of San Francisco redevelopment agency, 585.

Asner, Eve: (illus.), 199; Says public relations is part of code enforcement job, 426; 546.

Atchison, Colorado. Approves bond issue to complete downtown redevelopment, 517.

Atlanta, Georgia. Voters defeat 18 public improvement bond issues, 377; City's Techwood Homes first public housing project in USA opened for occupancy (illus.), 432; Georgia State College renewal partner of city (illus.), 510.

Augur, Tracy B.: 500; Honored as housing pioneer (port.), 572.

Austin, Texas. Okeys housing for elderly, 77; Court contested urban renewal program gets going, 141; Santa Rita Court first project opened under USHA (illus.), 437.

Austin, William A.: (illus.), 529.

B

Bacon, S. Allen: Seeks reprints of Philadelphia article on scattered-site housing, 494.

Baker, James: Elected president of NAHRO Southwest Regional Council (illus.), 332.

Baker, Ray: 529.

Baldwin, Donald M.: Traffic Engineering magazine seeks permission to reprint Journal article on coordination of renewal and transportation planning, 112.

Baltimore, Maryland. Site of federal-local cooperative rehab test, 45; Code enforcement organizational setup settled, 141; Reynolds Metals Company completes a rehab test project in (illus.), 262; Property owners and city council criticize FHA improvement loans, 263; City Housing Clinic substitutes teaching for fining housing code violators, 321; Uses renewal land for cultural facilities, 520; Real Estate Board of Greater Baltimore supports public housing and urban renewal, 522.

Barger, Glenn: (illus.), 417.

Barkley, Robert: (illus.), 417.

Barney, Richard: 352.

Barry, Edward F.: 104.

Bartholomew, Harland: Honored as housing pioneer, 572.

Baseler, Paul E.: Elected secretary of new builders organization--National Coordinating Council, 584.

Basik, Fred: LPA trainee graduate (illus.), 292.

Bateman, Richard W.: Evaluation of Baltimore's housing clinic for code violators, 322.

Bates, Stewart: Banquet speaker at NAHRO's Middle Atlantic Regional conference, 388.

Baughman, J. Stanley: 289; 546.

Beam, Jack: 172; (illus.), 199.

Beck, Richard L.: 412.

Bell, Thomas C.: 224.

Bellamy, William C.: Praises Hommann article on rehabilitation, 228; Comments on Journal issue stressing historic preservation, 355.

Bergeron, William E.: Director of PHA's Chicago regional office receives plaque for service in field of low-rent housing, 271.

Berkman, Herman C.: Letter to editor on training, 177; 223.

Bernstein, David: Tells NAHRO Middle Atlantic Regional Council workshop delegates they must keep public informed about housing activities, 272.

Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Historic preservation part of urban renewal (illus.), 314.

Better Housing League of Cincinnati. Helping Avondale-Corryville conservation area residents to obtain small home improvement loans, 264; Influence on city housing, 469.

Bexar County, Texas. Gets HHFA grant to test method of housing migratory farm workers, 358.

Beyer, Glenn H.: 352; Named by HHFA to committee on aged, 416.

Biddeson, Shirley: (illus.), 199.

Binford, Paul: 352.

Biondi, Francis: (illus.), 583.

Birmingham, Alabama. University of Alabama medical center gets moving in renewal area (illus.), 143; Tenant newsletter discusses school dropout problem, 192; Site of locally sponsored housing and renewal clinic, 291.

Blessing, Charles: The Planner's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding, 371; Speaks on design in urban renewal at NAHRO Renewal Workshop, 372.

Blucher, Walter H.: 169.

Blum, Lee I.: 105.

Boek, Walter E.: Praises Journal article on anthropology, 114.

Bogotá, Act of. Alliance for Progress makes housing instrument of American foreign policy (illus.), 22.

Bogotá, Colombia. Middle-income housing (illus.), 25.

Bohn, Ernest J.: 104, 171; Protests overuse of "project" to describe housing activities, 288; Named by HHFA to committee on aged, 416; 433; Honored as housing pioneer (port.), 572.

BOND ISSUES. (See Financing.)

Boyd, Osborne T.: Meets with Venezuelan officials on housing problems, 184.

Boy Scouts. Trying to organize troops in public housing projects, 124; 193.

Bradshaw, Dale W.: 54.

Brady, P. E. H.: (illus.), 389.

Brandeis University. Sponsors meeting on urban renewal, 38; Participant in study of relocation problems of middle- and upper-income Negroes, 173.

Brant, Charles W.: 104.

Breckenfeld, Gurney: 548.

Brennan, John: Session speaker at workshop on 1961 housing act (illus.), 11.

Bricker, John W.: Witness signing 1954 housing act (illus.), 443.

Bridgeport, Connecticut. Provides study lounge for housing students, 193.

British Guiana. Self-help housing (illus.), 27.

Brookings Institute. Sponsor of articles on how social scientists can help renewal work reprinted in Journal, 32; 83; 144.

Brooklyn, New York. Red Hook Houses--early USHA project (illus.), 437.

Brophy, Alice M.: Named by HHFA to committee on aged, 416.

Broughton, Robert B.: 224.

Brown, Joseph S.: "Salesman" for government property in atomic energy communities (illus.), 59.

Brown, Robert L.: 105.

Brownlow, Louis: Public housing pioneer and originator of idea of NAHRO (illus.), 436; Reviews new book by Gulick on metropolitan problems, 485; Honored as housing pioneer (port.), 572.

Brubaker, James: 224.

Brussat, William K.: (See Akahoshi, George T.)

Bueneman, Ervan R.: Praises Journal article on Latin American housing problems, 116.

Buffalo, New York. 1937 Willert Park Courts ages gracefully (illus.), 438.

Buford, Richard H.: 225; Letter to editor, 426.

BUILDING MATERIALS. Pittsburgh Creates New Community--tests out materials, methods, philosophies (illus.), 128; San Antonio low-cost housing project experiments with, 132; University of California, Berkeley, to test low-cost materials for hot climate housing without air conditioning, 236; New Albany, Indiana, likes prefabs for low-rent housing (illus.), 462; Steel Framing wins out over wood in 100-unit development (illus.), 336.

Building Officials Conference of America. One of three national builders organizations to form a National Coordinating Council, 584.

Building Research Institute. Becomes independent technical society, 398.

Bullock, Helen Duprey: Comments on Journal issue stressing historic preservation, 355.

Bureau of the Census. Helps HHFA prepare reports on senior citizens and sales of new one-family homes, 292.

Burke, Emmett: 290.

Busch, Sarah: 104.

BUSINESS. In Sylacauga, Alabama, renewal area, 513.

C

Cain, Martha B.: Praises Journal article on housing management, 114.

California. Housing code strengthened, expanded by 1961 legislative action, 39; Legislators approve constitutional amendment to finance housing for elderly, 136; Tightens anti-bias laws re housing, 137; Housing advisory committee due to make report, 139; Governor's Advisory Commission on Housing Problems disagrees with GAO criticism of Marin County Housing project, 251; Voters say no to bond issue to finance housing for elderly, 317; Voters turn down bond issue for housing aged and physically handicapped but approve farm and home aid to veterans, 319.

Cambridge, Massachusetts. City council puts renewal out of business, 317; AFSC&ME union takes over financing of renewal project in, 318.

Campbell, Paul M.: 546; Writes letter to editor re self-help housing construction in Colombia, 550.

Canaan, Gershon: 546.

CANADA. Forms Council on Urban and Regional Research, 243; HHFA administrator Robert Weaver keynote speaker at founding meeting, 243; Province of Ontario trying out new ways to meet low-income housing needs, 292; Ontario Association of Housing Authorities conducting intensive public housing study, 292; Canadian-U.S. viewpoints on housing and renewal exchanged at NAHRO's Middle Atlantic Regional conference, 388; Council on Urban and Regional Research to use Ford grant for study of urban and regional problems, 398.

Cape Girardeau, Missouri. Voters say no to more public housing units, 317.

Capehart, Homer E.: Witness signing 1954 housing act (illus.), 443.

Carey, James: Witness signing 1949 housing act (illus.), 441.

Carolina Association of Redevelopment Officials. Holds land disposition seminar (illus.), 417.

Carter, William R.: 54.

Case Institute of Technology. Announces graduate program in planning and policy sciences, 37; Renewal partner of Cleveland, 509.

Cayton, Howard: (illus.), 246.

Cedartown, Georgia. Likes its scattered-site public housing (illus.), 466.

Cederholm, Johan (and Mrs.): Long-time tenants Seattle public housing (illus.), 463.

Celebrezze, Anthony: Cleveland mayor appointed to succeed Abraham Ribicoff as HEW Secretary, 294.

CENTER CITY RESTORATION. (See Downtown Renewal.)

Chaffin, Douglas E.: Explains training program for renewal personnel available to LPA's, 177.

Chang, Arthur: Reports on activities at annual meeting of National Trust for Historic Preservation, 497.

Chicago. Hyde Park property owners first in area to receive Section 220 rehab loan, 40; Provides welfare services for public housing tenants, 124; Public housing tenants get homemaking help, 192; Free health exam given to more than 1,000 tenants, 192; Tenants welcome newcomers, 193; 1909 plan for city center development (illus.), 364; Citizens try to save trees, 373; University of Chicago conservation and redevelopment efforts summarized, 507; Uses renewal area for cultural facilities, 520; NAHRO local chapter and other groups sponsor urban renewal institute, 553.

Chong, W. Jan: Elected president of new Missouri NAHRO chapter then resigns to move to Waukegan, Illinois (illus.), 38.

Church of Christ. Demonstrate interest in urban renewal participation, 560.

CHURCH PARTICIPATION. Chicago's Grace Presbyterian Church gives homemaking help to public housing tenants, 192; Courts uphold right of church supported colleges to participate in urban renewal activities, 509; The Church reacts to urban renewal: a case study of alternatives (illus.), 556; Role of metropolitan church in 20th century, 557; Charge churches neglect needs of public housing tenants, 558; Urban renewal may stimulate parish comeback, 559; Some churches seeking information on how to participate in urban renewal, 560.

Cincinnati, Ohio. Urban renewal department's rehab demonstration program (illus.), 67; Urban renewal department explains conservation effort in Avondale-Corryville area and offers concrete help to homeowners, 263; Local chapter of American Institute of Architects forms "anti-ugly" committee, 373; Strong redeveloper interest in downtown renewal projects, 378; Housing History reviewed and evaluated for years from 1917 to 1962, 469; Voters approve bond issue for riverfront development and convention hall, 517; Procedures for selecting redeveloper criticized, 574.

Cintrón, Sixto Toro: Praises Journal issue on historic preservation, 424.

CITIZEN PARTICIPATION. Neighborhood Rehabilitation is working in six projects in New Haven; here's how (illus.), 185; Spark use of scattered-site public housing in Philadelphia (illus.), 467.

CIVIL DEFENSE. Fallout shelter needs to be considered in Norfolk, Virginia, downtown renewal project, 78; New Haven Housing maintenance and managerial staff attend course on (illus.), 139.

Clark, Senator Joseph S., Jr.: Introduces bill to amend, and improve, Housing for the Elderly Act of 1962, 428.

Clarke, F. David: Speaks to NAHRO Pacific Northwest Council workshop on workable program, 393; Basis for Measuring "Workable Program" Progress Explained by HHFA Spokesman As Guide to Local Renewal Officials, 524.

Clarksville, Arkansas. Voters say yes to urban renewal, 517.

Cleveland, Ohio. Story of Erieview, a downtown renewal project, 28; Tenants get course in laundry management, 192; Tenants of Golden Age project serve as project guides and activity leaders (illus.), 195; Renewal project held up by litigation headed for U. S. Supreme Court, 317; Redevelopment Foundation uses 221(d)(3) program to take over projects from financially embarrassed redevelopers, 318; Junior League gives $10,000 for beautification of urban renewal areas, 373; City's Cedar Apartments second public housing project in USA opened for occupancy (illus.), 433; Slum fighting efforts of University Circle Foundation, 509; A public housing Christmas story, 581.

Clute, Texas. Voters say "abandon urban renewal," 517.

Cocoa, Florida. Housing authority uses polysulfide sealant to obtain maintenance savings (illus.), 90.

CODE ENFORCEMENT. Setup in Baltimore settled, 141; Executive director of Southeast Chicago Commission proposes confiscation for noncomplying slum buildings, 263; Philadelphia tightens regulations, 264; Reader says public relations cannot be job of enforcement personnel, 287; Baltimore's Housing Clinic substitutes teaching for fining housing code violators, 321; Reader says public relations should be job of enforcement personnel, 356; Blocked by "sacred cows," 381; Another reader says public relations is codes job, 424; Reader corrects information on prior Journal story on New York legislation, 426; Barnet Lieberman discusses role of codes administration in renewal, 479; Another reader speaks on public relations and, 498; Reader discusses weaknesses in renewal, 549; Oakland recognizes social service role of, 582; Indio, California, conducts workshop on problems of those displaced by code enforcement, 582.

CODES. Lima, Ohio, votes turn down minimum housing standards proposal, 31; California Housing Code strengthened, expanded by 1961 legislative action, 39; Rhode Island supreme court upholds Providence ordinance requiring artificial light in common hallways but overturns requirement of hot water facilities, 89; Supreme court of Rhode Island overturns procedures of Providence housing board of review re code enforcement, 89; Relaxed for San Antonio low-cost housing experiment, 133; Roundup of state legislation on, 138; Codes now apply to all housing--inside and outside cities, 138; Neighborhood Rehabilitation is working in six projects in New Haven, here's how (illus.), 185; Report of NAHRO's 4th Codes conference (illus.), 198; Roundup of state laws on, 320; Wilmington's new code requires owner registration and listing of violations at time of sale, 326; NAHRO's Southern California Chapter sponsors conference on (illus.), 327; Karras article in Journal praised, 499; Housing and Renewal Conference of Delaware Valley area holds meeting on codes (illus.), 583; New Jersey writes state housing code that cities can adopt by reference, 584.

Cohen, Wilbur J.: (illus.), 445.

Coit, Elisabeth: 500.

Colborn, Fern M.: Praises Journal articles on Community Renewal Program, 111.

Cole, Albert: Witness signing 1954 housing act (illus.), 443.

Coleman, Richard G.: 290; 548.

Colton, California. Voters okey housing for elderly project, 31.

Colombia. Bogotá reader reports on self-help housing training, 549.

Columbia University. Offers bachelor's degree in planning, 37; Slum fighting and redevelopment efforts, 509; Conducts urban affairs conference for newspaper reporters, 560; Graduate students preparing redevelopment plan for Worcester, Massachusetts, 552.

COMMUNITY FACILITIES ADMINISTRATION. Report on work of program planning office, 240; To receive large share of funds from new public works program, 501; Summary of college housing loan program activity, 505.

Community Progress, Inc.: New organization for tackling New Haven's social problems, 260.

COMMUNITY RENEWAL PROGRAM. Social planning should be part of a CRP, 70; Economic analysis should be part of a CRP, 71; Five associations talk federal-local issues at "workable program" meeting with HHFA, 230; Summary of NAHRO committee recommendations to HHFA for change and results, 394; HHFA spokesman explains workable program for local renewal officials, 524.

CONCERTED SERVICES. Title for new FHA-HEW efforts to provide welfare services for public housing tenants, 475; Description of program, 569. (See also Social Goals, Problem Families.)

CONDEMNATION. Connecticut court says blighted or not "eyesore" can be condemned in redevelopment area, 591.

CONDOMINIUM HOUSING. Reader questions value of, 117; Roundup of state legislation, 137; FHA insures Florida and Puerto Rico projects, 319; Arizona, Kentucky, Louisiana, South Carolina and Virginia pass legislation to encourage, 320.

Condon, D. L.: Calls Journal too "liberal," 116.

Connecticut. Gives money for loans to localities to pay their share of renewal projects, 136; Increases state bond authorization for housing of elderly, 136; Tightens anti-bias housing laws, 137.

Connecticut Association of Housing and Redevelopment Authorities. Annual meeting and election of officers, 527.

Connelly, Florence E.: Original employee of Cleveland Housing project still on job, 433.

CONSERVATION. FHA improvement loans criticized and program lags, 263; Begin work on residential neighborhood in Pittsburgh, 317; Providence uses architects to help property owners in conservation areas (illus.), 326; Success blocked by "sacred cows," 381; (See also Downtown Renewal, Historic Preservation, Urban Renewal.)

CONSTRUCTION. Pittsburgh Creates New Community--tests out materials, methods, philosophies (illus.), 128; Steel Framing wins out over wood in 100-unit development (illus.), 336; Prototype apartments to be built in New Jersey to test new materials, 358; Report of FHA experimental housing, 359; University of Michigan studying use of plastics for low-cost houses, 361; The Developer's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding, 369; Ten years of prefabs in New Albany, Indiana, brings call for more (illus.), 462. Firebaugh and Fresno, California, to help University of California test methods and materials for low-income housing in hot, dry climates, 521.

New Products. Mercury floodlights (illus.). Hardboard siding; "Fireproof" acoustical tile; Free literature on lighting fixtures and electrical fixtures, 43; Roof vent (illus.); Aluminum mail boxes (illus.), Aluminum flush door; Free literature on bicycle racks, 93; Entrance circuit breaker (illus.); Structural sheathing; Door with new core; Redesigned toilet, 157; Asphalt tester; Sliding door carrier (illus.); Lightweight terrazzo; Folding partition (illus.), 209; Through-the-wall heater (illus.); New Du Pont finish; Bathroom grab bars; Gypsum stud partition (illus.), 274; Termite shield (illus.); Concrete stairs; Improved copper heater hose (illus.), 334; Built-in look gas range (illus.); New refrigerator (illus.); "Safety" shower valve (illus.), 396; Unique heating system (illus.), 480; Economical electric range (illus.); Cost-cutting faucet (illus.); Double duty elevator cab, 532; Guaranteed: no painting plywood siding (illus.); Wall ventilator (illus.); Restyled gas furnaces, 592.

Conway, Jack T.: Speaker at NAHRO Southeastern conference, 330; Witness signing 1961 housing act (illus.), 444.

Conway, Robert G.: 411.

Cooper, Joseph A.: (illus.), 532.

COOPERATIVE HOUSING. 221(d)(3) program used to finance apartments in Minneapolis, 518.

Copp, Carl A.: (illus.), 270.

Corbett, Jack A.: 84.

Cornell University. Sponsor of meeting on "Planning for Urban Aesthetics," 38; Conducts renewal seminar, 291; Adds new division of urban studies, 551; Graduate students of architecture get practical experience in housing and urban renewal, 552.

Cornog, Geoffrey Y.: Asks permission to abstract Journal articles, 550.

COSTS. GAO criticizes Marin County, California, housing project, 250; Quotes from dissenters, 251; 253; 255; 257.

COURT DECISIONS.

U. S. Supreme Court. Decision in Tennessee Reapportionment case may help urban program, 116; Denies review of Washington state supreme court ruling that ban on racial discrimination in publicly assisted housing is unconstitutional, 205; Upholds Cleveland's Erieview project as a "governmental purpose in the public interest," 589.

U. S. Court of Appeals. Rules savings, loan deposits are not investments, 387; Denies tax exemption of housing project bought for private use, 387; Capehart Act bond notice requirements upheld in two cases, 387.

Alabama. U. S. district court rules renewal doesn't deprive citizens of rights, 205; U. S. district court rules housing bias injunction against Bessemer Project unnecessary, 589.

California. State district court of appeal okeys selling left-over land unless deed says otherwise, 206.

Colorado. Anti-bias housing act found unconstitutional by district court, 88.

Connecticut. Superior court holds that a land sale is not subject to anti-discrimination law, 88; Supreme court of errors says contractor can't sue for claim of subcontractor, 387; Court rules savings and loan branches don't need FHLBB approval, 398. Court says blighted or not "eyesore" property must go in redevelopment area, 591; Superior court upholds land purchase by housing authority of Danbury, 591.

Georgia. Court of appeals rules housing authorities must pay state sales tax, 87.

Kentucky. Title examination by federal savings and loan association ruled illegal by court of appeals, 89; Circuit court says Louisville housing authority exempt from state sales and use tax, 387.

Louisiana. State supreme court says local housing authorities may not purchase insurance from mutual companies, 87; Court of appeal rules housing authority must pay costs of in-again, out-again builder, 205.

Massachusetts. Supreme judicial court upholds anti-bias law, 386; Supreme judicial court says contract between housing authority and redeveloper must abide by HHFA regulations, 387.

Nevada. Court says Reno project area no slum and stops renewal action, 590.

New Jersey. Supreme court rules housing authority must pay for sewage treatment service, 205; State supreme court says state anti-bias law does not violate rights, 386.

North Carolina. State supreme court sustains right of housing authority to choose site, 387.

New York. State court of appeals okeys redevelopment of non-slums for industrial re-use, 206; Court denies injunction request as improper method of relief from discrimination, 387.

Ohio. Toledo judge stops enforcement of city housing discrimination ordinance, 88; U. S. district court holds use of federal funds legal in nonresidential renewal, 386.

Pennsylvania. Common pleas court stops Philadelphia Housing Authority work on rehabilitation of noncontiguous old houses, 87; District court holds savings, loan branch approvals not up to FHLBB, 89; Supreme court approves Philadelphia's Haddington project to rehabilitate noncontiguous old houses, 589.

Rhode Island. Supreme court upholds Providence ordinance requiring artificial light in common hallways but overturns requirement of hot water facilities, 89; Supreme court overturns procedures of Providence housing board of review re code enforcement, 89.

Texas. District court awards judgment to PHA in duplicate profit mixup, 97.

Washington. State supreme court rules nondiscrimination housing law unconstitutional, 88.

West Virginia. Circuit court overrules dismissal of housing employee, 87.

Wisconsin. U. S. District Court rules depositer in a savings and loan association is shareholder, 89.

Cox, Joseph D.: 171.

Cox, Lawrence: Witness signing 1949 housing act (illus.), 441.

Crane, Edward A.: Cambridge, Massachusetts, mayor speaks on urban renewal at NAHRO New England Regional Council meeting, 273.

Cronheim, Dorothy: (illus.), 583.

Crowl, John A.: Praises Journal article on housing management, 114.

Culler, Samuel J.: 172.

D

Daley, Austin C.: Praises Journal article on use of architects in rehabilitation, 177; Discussion chairman for session at NAHRO codes conference (illus.), 199; Writes letter to editor on use of codes in renewal, 549.

Dallas, Texas. Housing authority stresses social services for tenants (illus.), 127; Housing authority and school system team up to provide homemaking training to public housing tenants, 192; Adults in public housing offered courses in reading and writing, 193; Cedar Springs Place in operation for 25 years (illus.), 434; Voters say no to public housing proposal, 521; A public housing Christmas story, 581.

Darrow, Lawrence P.: Praises NAHRO Journal, 427.

Daugherty, Wayne F.: Describes program planning work of PHA (Port.), 239.

Davies, J. Clarence: 55.

Davis, Arthur A.: Discusses first open-space land grant with Wisconsin governor (illus.), 10.

Dayton, Ohio. Citizens complete study of real property taxation and urban blight and make recommendations, 259.

DEATHS. Blum, Lee L., 105; Bradshaw, Dale W., 54; Corbett, Jack A., 54; Flowers, E. A., 8; Ghent, Pierre M., 171; Haglund, Albert L., 8; Innes, John W., 8; Isaacs, Stanley M., 289; Kidd, Kenneth R., 224; Lang, Edward L., 411; McGee, Cushman, 351; Mailloux, Al F., 104; Montz, Stanley A., 290; Nelson, Harlan A., 54; Parmelee, Kenneth A., 104; Pettibone, Holman D., 290; Scott, W. W., 410; Shanafelt, William A., 169; Snyder, Alva W., 172; Solomon, Harry M., 352; Vaughan, L. L., 224; Word, R. H., 54.

Decatur, Georgia. Voters turn down urban renewal bond issue, 317.

de Fremery, Robert: Comments on land taxation article in Journal, 115.

Delaney, Frank H.: 548.

Delano, California. Voters approve increase in public housing units, 521.

Demerath, Nicholas J.: St. Louis Public Housing Study sets off "community development" try to meet social needs (illus.), 472; Praises NAHRO Journal, 494.

DEMONSTRATION GRANTS. Section 314 funds given for study of relocation problems of middle- and upper-income Negroes in Boston, 173; The score on "314" demonstrations, 242; Roundup of section 207 low-income housing action, 236; HHFA gives first 303 transportation demonstration for Detroit study of effects of more frequent bus service, 247; Tulsa to experiment with subsidized, option-to-buy homes, 258; Washington, D. C. gets grant to lease private housing for sublease to large, low-income families, 258; Roundup of different types of HHFA programs, 358; Indianapolis to help low-income families rehabilitate houses, 521; Firebaugh and Fresno, California, to help University of California test low-income housing construction in hot, dry climates, 521; Philadelphia to test techniques to relocate skid row residents, 522.

Dempsey, John: Connecticut governor addresses banquet session at NAHRO's New England Regional conference, 391.

Denne, William F.: 55.

Denver, Colorado. State throws out Metropolitan Capital Improvement District, 140; Two developers selected for city's first renewal job (illus.), 574.

Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, The HEW story, 570.

Department of Housing and Urban Affairs. Summary of legislative action, 7; Status of President's plan to establish, 60.

DESIGN. Four cities try different approaches for construction in renewal areas (illus.), 16; American Institute of Architects give Ohio State teachers scholarship for research project, 38; Architects Get in Rehab Act in conservation areas of 20 cities (illus.), 63; First Cities to Use New Demonstration Rehab Program Use Architects (illus.), 65; Minneapolis golden age homes project wins award (illus.), 134; Awards of Progressive Architecture go to Philadelphia, Milwaukee, and Detroit renewal projects, 206; GAO criticizes Marin County, California, housing project, 250; Pictures of Marin County project with quotes from GAO and answers by architects, 253; 255; 257; Marin County, California, Housing Authority thanks NAHRO for fair reporting of its differences with Government Accounting Office, 287; Urban renewal contest winners announced, 361; The Administrator's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding, 365; URA issues official guideline statement on urban design, 368; The Developer's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding, 369; The Planner's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding, 371; Roundup of urban design efforts in 5 cities, 373; The Architect's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding, 375; Developer awarded two Washington, D. C. projects on basis of, 379; URA establishes new job to improve urban design, 417; Good design bring Minneapolis success (illus.), 457; Small towns try for single-family look (illus.), 458; Journal reader praises work of architect for Richmond, California, housing project, 494; Awards in San Francisco Diamond Heights project (illus.), 578.

DesMarteau, R. C.: (illus.), 332.

Des Moines, Iowa. Makes awards for six residential and one commercial project, 575.

Detroit, Michigan. Renewal project wins award for design from Progressive Architecture but will never be built, 206; Gets first 303 transportation demonstration grant for study of effects of more frequent bus service, 247; New ordinance seeks to prevent new skid row development, 326; Problems of development of International Village in old skid row area (illus.), 577.

Dickenson, R. Boulton: Praises Journal, 115.

Dillon, Thomas: (illus.), 259.

DISCRIMINATION. Pro and con discussion of an anti-discrimination in federally assisted housing order by Kennedy, 15; Member of Washington, D. C. design-winning development firm criticized for past practices, 20; Reports of court decisions concerning, 88; State of Pennsylvania and FHA agree to enforce state's anti-discrimination law, 120; URA strengthens nondiscrimination policy; Senator Hugh Scott introduces resolution calling for study of discrimination practices, 120; Supreme court refuses to review Washington state supreme court decision that state anti-discrimination law is unconstitutional, 120; Roundup of state anti-bias legislation, 137; Readers send information on state legislation re housing, 176; U. S. Supreme Court denies review of Washington state supreme court ruling that the ban on racial discrimination in publicly assisted housing is unconstitutional, 205; Roundup of state anti-bias laws, 320; Presidential order on housing discrimination again rumored pending, 362; New Jersey supreme court says state anti-bias law does not violate rights, 386; Massachusetts supreme judicial court upholds anti-bias law, 386; New York court denies injunction request as improper method of relief from discrimination, 387; Kennedy issues Executive Order banning racial discrimination in housing financed with federal funds, 501; Text of President Kennedy's housing order, 518; Announcement of order and President's statement on effects of, 519; Poverty in USA is special challenge to public housing (illus.), 562; NAHRO provides information to members on President Kennedy's order on discrimination in housing, 585; U. S. district court in Alabama rules housing bias injunction against Bessemer project unnecessary, 589.

Donahue, Wilma: Named by HHFA to committee on aged, 416; praises 25th anniversary of housing act issue of Journal, 494.

Douglas Fir Plywood Association. Critical of FHA home improvement loan program, 263.

Douglas, Gordon K.: Speaker at Pacific Southwest conference, 268.

Douglas, Hamilton, Jr.: Major speaker at NAHRO Southeastern conference, 330.

Downing, Willard E.: 223.

Downs, James C., Jr.: Speaks at NAHRO's first housing workshop, 530; New Social Goals proposed for public housing for the 60's (port.), 566.

DOWNTOWN RENEWAL. Story of Erieview, a downtown Cleveland renewal project, 28; Little Rock plans for entire downtown facelifting, 29; Court gives go-ahead to downtown redevelopment plans of San Jose, 140; New York state and Albany both want 98.5-acre downtown site, 258; Rochester, New York's Midtown Plaza open for business, 261; Torrington, Connecticut, starts project, 262; Fresno makes plans for center to help skid row relocatees, 262; Work proceeds in Pittsburgh project, 317; Strong redeveloper interest in bidding on Cincinnati projects, 378; University of California at Los Angeles sponsors conference on downtown business districts, 551; Columbia graduate students preparing redevelopment plan for Worcester, Massachusetts, 552; New Haven, Connecticut, leases land for new Macy's department store building, 573; Norfolk holds design contest to choose developer for downtown residential project, 573; Procedures for selecting redeveloper in Cincinnati criticized, 574; Denver shopping center award, 575; Problems of development of International Village in old Detroit skid row area (illus.), 577. (See also Referenda, Urban Renewal.)

Doxiadis, C. A.: 223; Completes report for NAHRO on urban renewal and future of American city, 585.

Drury, Ruth: 529.

Ducey, John M.: 410.

Ducharme, Robert G.: 172.

Dumouchel, J. Robert: Named NAHRO Director of Information, 341; Prime and Pertinent, 339, 399, 482, 534, 595.

Duquesne University. Renewal partner of Pittsburgh, 503.

Dyersburg, Tennessee. Trys keysort system for tenant occupancy data record-keeping, 153; Contemporary design copied by nearby housing authorities (illus.), 465.

E

Early, Melvin F.: Session speaker at workshop on 1961 housing act (illus.), 11.

Ecorse, Michigan. McCree Plaza project uses steel framing to save construction and maintenance costs (illus.), 336; Wins honorable mention in American Institute of Architects competition (illus.), 336; McCree Plaza uses steel framing and modern design to win honorable mention in American Institute of Architects' competition (illus.), 468.

Edelman, John W.: 169.

Edic, Mrs. Elizabeth: Original tenant of Cleveland's first housing project, 433.

Edwards, Herbert M.: Elected president of NAHRO Pacific Northwest Regional Council (illus.), 529.

Egan, John Taylor: PHA commissioner, 1947-1953 (port.), 439.

Eisenhower, Dwight D.: Signs 1954 housing act (illus.), 443.

ELDERLY, HOUSING FOR. Fontana, California, voters turn down proposal, but Colton, California, voters approve a project, 31; NAHRO gets Ford grant to training managers of, 57; Project completed in Marked Tree, Arkansas (illus.), 75; Austin, Texas, okeys project, 77; Minneapolis Golden Age Homes--space problems solved with an award-winning design (illus.), 134; Roundup of state aid for, 136; Tenants at Cleveland's Golden Age project serve as guides and activity leaders (illus.), 195; Article on Providence experience with relocation offered to Journal, 228; NAHRO gets grant for study of relocation problems, 293; HHFA may make small city study, 293; Legislation for both urban and rural needs reported out by house committee, 295; Nonprofit homes for aged form association, 361; Portland, Oregon, Housing Authority uses 608 deal to buy private apartment house for (illus.), 380; HHFA appoints permanent advisory committee, 416; Bill passes and is signed by Kennedy, 428; Senator Clark introduces bill to amend, and improve, act of 1962, 428; Good design of Minneapolis' Lyndale Homes (illus.), 457; Examples from San Antonio, Providence and Miami show variety and originality (illus.), 460; Prospects for passage of legislation early in 1963 look promising, 555; Summary of NAHRO activities, 585.

El Dorado, Arkansas. Voters turn down proposal to apply for urban renewal program, 377.

Elliott, Frank: (illus.), 583.

EMINENT DOMAIN. House Committee on Public Works creates study committee, 62. (See also Condemnation, Land Purchase.)

Emmerich, Herbert: 223; Praises Journal cover of May issue, 228; 351; PHA Commissioner, 1942-1944 (port.), 439.

EUROPE. Housing focus of committee of Economic Commission for Europe, 183; News notes on UN's Economic Commission for Europe, 184; NAHRO President Harmon comments on trip to world housing congress, 531.

Ewing, Edgar M.: Baltimore's Housing Clinic substitutes teaching for fining housing code violators, 321.

F

Fain, Irving Jay: Letter to editor gives more details on Providence integrated community, 288.

Fargo, North Dakota. Uses renewal land for library, 520.

Farley, Erwin: 223.

Farris, Charles L.: Attends organizational meeting of NAHRO Missouri chapter (illus.), 38; Praises Journal series of articles on contribution of social scientists to renewal, 114; Chairs design session at NAHRO Renewal Workshop (illus.), 372.

Fasteau, I. Jack: Chairman NAHRO housing workshop (illus.), 569; The HEW story, 570.

Fawcett, John: Comments on Journal issue on historic preservation, 424.

FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION. Participation in pre-application processing project in Baltimore, 45; HHFA seeks to use FHA reserve funds to finance a headquarters building, 179; Report on work of program planning office, 240; Research activities of, 241; Scheme to finance HHFA headquarters building with reserve fund money fails, but construction approved by usual financing procedures, 429; Approves handling fee on home improvement loans, 502.

FEDERAL NATIONAL MORTGAGE ASSOCIATION. Research activities of, 241; Will buy 203k and 220h loans at 100 per cent, 502.

FINANCING. Temporary note rate up; bonds dip; denomination changed, 13; Chicago property owners first in area to receive Section 220 loan for rehabilitating apartment building, 40; Case study of use of Section 220 in Philadelphia, 41; HHFA budget for fiscal 1964, 61; Reader questions value of condominiums, 117; In new Pittsburgh middle-income community, 131; An Economist suggests how his profession can help in renewal job, 144; NAHRO testimony on mass transit bill includes financing suggestions, 178; HHFA suggests use of FHA reserve funds to finance its headquarters building, 179; Unstable exchange rates said to block investments abroad, 184; Plans for new Providence, Rhode Island residential redevelopment project, 260; FHA improvement loans criticized and program lags, 263; Roundup of city activities to help low-income families buy and rent homes under FHA 221(d)(3) program, 318; Pittsburgh Wins in renewal bond vote: here's the "campaign" story, 376; Roundup of defeated renewal bond issues, 377; Publications with tips to gain citizen support for housing and renewal, 400; Scheme to finance HHFA headquarters building with FHA reserve fund money fails but construction approved by usual financing procedures, 429; Handling fee approved on FHA home improvement loans, 502; 1962 legislation re savings and loan associations summarized, 502; Colleges get federal help for expansion through CFA college housing loan program, 505. (See also Condominium Housing, Cooperative Housing, Costs, Referenda.)

Filley, Robert A.: Discusses scope of code enforcement job (illus.), 327.

Finley, William E.: 546.

Finlon, Thomas R.: (illus.), 272.

Fisher, Ernest M.: Chairman of new Housing Census Advisory Committee (port.), 244.

Flanders, Ralph: Witness signing 1949 housing act (illus.), 441.

Florida. Site of first FHA-insured condominium in the U. S., 318.

Flowers, E. A.: 8.

Flowers, Paul: (illus.), 246.

Foley, Raymond: Witness signing 1949 housing act (illus.), 441.

Follin, James: Witness signing 1954 housing act (illus.), 443.

Fontana, California. Voters say no to housing for elderly, 31.

Forbes, Fred A.: Praises Journal editorial, 116.

Ford, Eugene F.: (illus.), 417.

Ford Foundation. Gives grant to Oakland, California, to test ways to help people in depressed neighborhoods, 9; May give grant to ACTION-Housing for social renewal work in Pittsburgh, 9; Makes grant for training of federal officials, 56; Gives NAHRO grant to train managers of elderly housing projects, 57; Gives New Haven grant to test new methods of solving social problems, 260; Gives NAHRO second grant for study of housing for elderly problems, 293; Summary of study grants to NAHRO by, 585.

Forrest, Edward: 169; 223.

Fox, Andrew: (illus.), 527.

Frank, Leonard: 352.

Franklin, Richard: Asks permission to reprint Journal article on St. Louis bond referendum experience in casebook, 113.

Freedman, Paul S.: (illus.), 527.

Fresno, California. City Council approves attack on skid row area, 262; Voters say no to more public housing units, 317.

Fresno State College. Site of a metropolitan problems workshop, 291.

Fresques, James: 8.

Frost, M. L.: Director Cedartown, Georgia, housing authority sings praises of scattered-site housing (illus.), 466.

G

Gabel, Hortense: 105; 290.

Gabler, Joseph F.: 224.

Galesburg, Illinois. Knox College renewal partner of city (illus.), 504.

Gamble, Ralph O.: Witness signing 1954 housing act (illus.), 443.

Garvey, Robert R., Jr.: Comments on value of historic preservation in urban renewal, 424.

Gaus, John: Letter to editor, 177.

Geary, Monsignor Leo A.: (port.), Sees housing regaining its place as basic component of urban renewal, 204, (illus.), 272; Luncheon speaker at NAHRO Pacific Northwest conference, 528; Leads NAHRO's first housing division workshop (port.), 561.

General Accounting Office. Spot-checks housing and renewal transactions, 249; Criticizes design of Marin County, California, housing project, 250.

General Improvement Contractors Association. A new professional group, 173; Recommends changes in FHA improvement loan program, 263.

Gensemer, D. D.: 548.

George Peabody College for Teachers. Renewal partner of Nashville, 510.

George, William Walker: (illus.), 412.

Georgia. Amendment to constitution proposed to enable counties to undertake redevelopment, 136; May create state housing agency as substitute for FHA, 319; Passes constitutional amendment to allow revenue bonds, payable out of taxes to meet local costs of urban renewal, 320; Voters approve county renewal activity, 517.

Georgia State College. Renewal partner of Atlanta (illus.), 510.

Gerdy, Irving: Discussant at workshop on 1961 housing act (illus.), 11.

Gerhardt, William H.: Directs codes conference sponsored by NAHRO Southern California chapter (illus.), 327.

Ghent, Pierre M.: 171.

Gilkey, Rev. James Gordon, Jr.: Speaks of problems of central city church in 20th century, 557.

Gillis, Francis L.: 546.

Gillogly, David: (illus.), 246.

Gilman, Marvin S.: Surveys housing in West Indies, 184.

Girl Scouts. Trying to organize troops in public housing projects, 124; 193; Officials express thanks to local housing authorities at NAHRO regional meetings, 273.

Glader, Naomi: 172.

Glotzbach, George L.: "Rent Insurance" Plan Offered by Minnesota Mutual Insurance Company, 21.

Goldfarb, Alan: 105.

Goldman, Ruth Schley: Praises Journal issue stressing welfare, 177.

Goldman, Seymour: LPA trainee graduate (illus.), 292.

Gorman, Robert: Comments on construction Journal article, 116.

Goshen, California. Approve low-rent project, 31.

Gourley, Franze: 105.

Grand Rapids, Michigan. Uses renewal land for cultural facilities, 520.

Graswell, Agness: (illus.), 527.

Grebler, Leo: Finds planned renewal spreading in Europe, 184.

Green, Aaron G.: Marin County housing project architect defends design (illus.), 253, 255, 257.

Green, Herman W.: Praises Journal article on housing management, 114.

Green, William: Witness signing 1949 housing act (illus.), 441.

Greenville, North Carolina. Voters approve first renewal project and establishment of a housing authority, 31.

Gregory, Zelda: (illus.), 529.

Gribetz, Judah: (illus.), 199.

Gridley, California. Voters approve more public housing, 521.

Grier, George: (illus.), 246.

Gulick, Luther: New book "Metropolitan Problem and American Ideas" reviewed by Louis Brownlow, 485.

Gup, Eva C.: (illus.), 270.

Gusgrove, George L.: (illus.), 527.

Guy, Maynard N.: Says Journal feature "Personnel Exchange" helpful, 288.

H

Haglund, Albert L.: 8.

Hale, Robert L., Jr.: Praises Journal articles on Community Renewal Program, 111.

Hallman, Howard W.: Social planning should be part of a CRP (Community Renewal Program), 70.

Hamady, Dan R.: 105; Heads U. S. delegation to 23rd session of Housing Committee of UN's Economic Commission for Europe, 184; Named chairman of new U. S. group to aid CIB, 398.

Hamilton, Calvin S.: Asks for reprints of urban design articles, 550.

Hamtramck, Michigan. Housing director plays Santa, 581.

Hanes, Ralph P.: Comments on Journal issue stressing historic preservation, 355.

Hansen, Donald W.: Buildings editor seeks permission to excerpt Journal article on administrative organization of renewal agencies, 112.

Hardaway, John R.: Senior employee of nation's first public housing project (illus.), 432.

Hardy, Neal J.: Featured speaker at NAHRO renewal conference, 328; Participant in NAHRO Southwest conference (illus.), 332.

Hardy, William G.: 546.

Harmon, A. J.: Looks at NAHRO's "image," 30; Attends organizational meeting of NAHRO Missouri chapter (illus.), 38; Looks at fast-paced NAHRO activities, 94; Reviews the demise of the Department of Housing and Urban Affairs, 151; Praises Journal issue, 177; (illus.), 198; Takes a look at NAHRO "hidden services," 267; Speaker at NAHRO Pacific Southwest conference, 268; (illus.), 269; Addresses opening session of NAHRO North Central conference, 270; Speaker at NAHRO Southeastern conference, 330; (illus.), 332; Evaluates NAHRO services to members, 395; Comments on trip to world housing congress, 531; Review of year-end NAHRO activities, 585.

Harrington, Michael: Speaks at NAHRO's first housing workshop, 530; Poverty in USA is special challenge to public housing (port.), 562.

Harris, Harry C.: 290.

Harris, Maude: First lady of public housing (illus.), 432.

Hartford, Connecticut. Reasons for receiving All-America City award, 142.

Hartman, Sara: (illus.), 246.

Harvard University. Offers fellowships in Graduate School of Public Administration, 38.

Hatcher, Flora Y.: Speaks to church groups interested in information on renewal, 560.

Hatcher, Raymond O.: 6.

Hawaii. Bill introduced to help private developers build housing for elderly, 136; State's oldest project stands test of time (illus.), 464; Ground broken for Queen Emma Gardens project in Honolulu (illus.), 576.

Hayes, Frederick O'R.: Describes program planning work of URA (port.), 238; Speaker at NAHRO North Central conference, 271.

Heckscher, August. Praises NAHRO Journal issue on historic preservation, 424.

Henderson, Laurance G.: Speaker at NAHRO North Central conference, 270; Speaker at NAHRO Southeastern conference, 330.

Henderson, Metta C.: 351.

Hendrickson, Einar H.: Praises Journal articles on research, 356.

Hendrickson, H. Robert: 500.

Henry, A. R.: 55.

Herley, Mark K.: 8.

Herron, Ted: Elected vice-president of new NAHRO Missouri chapter (illus.), 38.

HIGHWAYS. Act of 1962 passed, including relocation payments, 501. (See also Transportation.)

Hignett, H. W.: Reads address of Stewart Bates at NAHRO's Middle Atlantic Regional conference, 388.

Hildreth, Lloyd: (illus.), 380.

Hillman, Herman D.: Discussant at workshop on 1961 housing act (illus.), 11; Public Housing Sites--renewal areas must provide more of them, 79; Speaker at NAHRO's New England Regional conference (illus.), 390.

Hirsch, Herman E.: (illus.), 527.

Hirten, John E.: Praises Hommann article on rehabilitation and seeks reprints, 288; 351.

HISTORIC PRESERVATION. Journal editorial, 297; Providence, Rhode Island (illus.), 298; Portsmouth, New Hampshire (illus.), 301; Monterey, California (illus.), 304; Little Rock, Arkansas, (illus.), 306; Mobile, Alabama (illus.), 308; York, Pennsylvania (illus.), 310; San Juan, Puerto Rico (illus.), 312; Bethlehem, Pennsylvania (illus.), 314; Journal issue on subject praised by readers, 355; Renewal officials support, 416; Journal issue on subject praised by readers, 424; NAHRO Journal's historic preservation issue featured in Toledo and Sacramento newspaper editorials, 497; featured in New York and Cincinnati editorials, 484. (See also Aesthetics.)

Hixon, William: Discussion leader at NAHRO Codes Conference (illus.), 199.

Hoboken, New Jersey. Housing ladies volunteer services, 194.

Hoffman, Maurice L.: 8.

Hogenson, Harris O.: (illus.), 269.

Hohlmayer, Arthur F.: 290.

Holland, Joseph F.: Accepts NAHRO Southwest Regional Council award to St. Louis Post-Dispatch (illus.), 333.

Holliway, Dolores F.: (illus.), 269; Director of Richmond, California housing authority praises good use of terrain in city's Easter Hill project (illus.), 449; Praises design work of architect for Richmond, California, housing site, 494.

Holt, H. L.: The Bulletin editor asks permission to reprint Journal article "The Ugly American City," 113.

HOME IMPROVEMENT. Handling fee on FHA loans approved, 502. (See also Conservation, Private Property.)

Hommann, Mary S.: Neighborhood Rehabilitation is working in six projects in New Haven; here's how (illus.), 185; Rehabilitation article praised by readers, 228; Journal readers praise rehabilitation article; seek reprints; 287.

Horan, Charles J.: Session speaker at workshop on 1961 housing act (illus.), 11; Speaker at NAHRO's New England Regional conference (illus.), 390.

Horne, Frank S.: 104.

Horsky, Charles: 289.

HOUSING CALENDAR. List of events sponsored by organizations operating in fields related to housing and urban renewal, 11, 58, 110, 175, 226, 285, 353, 420, 356, 594.

HOUSING, DEMONSTRATION. First Cities to Use New Demonstration Rehab Program Use Architects (illus.), 65.

HOUSING AND HOME FINANCE AGENCY. Disposes of government property in two atomic energy communities (illus.), 59; Budget for fiscal 1964, 61; Annotated listings of agency reports, 95; Suggests use of FHA reserve funds to finance its headquarters building, 179; Appropriation for agencies still pending as 1962 fiscal year ends, 230; Talks federal-local issues with five associations at "workable program" meeting, 230; Story of research operations, 237; Releases report Senior Citizens and How They Live, 292; House passes 1963 appropriations bill but cuts HHFA requests, 294; Roundup of demonstration program activity, 358; Loans personnel to AID for work in housing and urban development fields (illus.), 360; Summary of NAHRO committee recommendations to HHFA for changes in workable program and results, 394; Appoints permanent advisory committee on housing for senior citizens, 416; Status of appropriations for fiscal 1963, 363; Appropriations bill passes and is signed by president, 428; Scheme to finance headquarters building with FHA reserve fund money fails but construction approved by usual financing procedures, 429; Headquarters building postponed for lack of appropriation by Congress, 502; Spokesman explains "Workable Program" for community improvement, 524; Provides training conference on renewal goals and progress for interns and LPA trainees (illus.), 553.

Housing and Renewal Conference of Delaware Valley Area. Teams up with HHFA regional office to sponsor meeting on codes (illus.), 582.

Howenstine, Jay: Participant in UN meeting on international housing (illus.), 181.

Howes, Rev. Robert G.: Praises Journal issue on 25th anniversary of housing act, 550.

HUMAN SIDE OF HOUSING. Monsignor Geary sees re-emphasis on housing in urban renewal, 204; "Christmas" stories, 581.

Hunter, Donald: 270.

Huntington, West Virginia. Marshall University renewal partner of city, 512.

Hupert, David: LPA trainee graduate, 292.

Hurley, James J.: 411.

I

Idaho. Prohibits discrimination in sale or rental of housing, 138.

Iddings, Andrew S.: 290.

Ilgenfritz, J. J.: (illus.), 198.

Illinois. Authorizes cities to issue bonds for neighborhood conservation, 136.

Illinois Association of Housing and Redevelopment Authorities. Annual meeting and election of officers, 13. Annual meeting and election of officers, 527.

INDIANS. Housing projects under way on three reservations, 380.

Indio, California. Approve renewal bond issue, 517; Conducts workshop to find housing solutions for displacees of code enforcement, 582.

Innes, John W.: 8.

INTEGRATION. Letter to editor gives information on Providence, Rhode Island, plans for integrated community, 288; Racially integrated development going up in Providence, 318. (See also Court Decisions, Discrimination.)

International City Managers' Association. One of associations discussing federal-local issues at "workable program" meeting with HHFA, 230.

International Cooperation Administration. Sponsors survey of housing conditions in West Indies, 184.

International Conference of Building Officials. One of three national builders organizations to form National Coordinating Council, 584.

International Council for Building Research, Studies and Documentation. New U. S. committe to aid, 398.

International Federation for Housing and Planning. Holds 26th World Housing Congress in Paris, 69; NAHRO President reports on trip to 26th congress, 531.

INTERNATIONAL HOUSING. Alliance for Progress makes housing instrument of American foreign policy (illus.), 22; United Nations sharpens focus on international housing problems (illus.), 180; European Housing focus of committee of Economic Commission for Europe, 183; International news notes, 184; HHFA loans personnel to AID to work on housing and urban development projects (illus.), 360; Compared with U. S. public housing, 568.

Institute of Traffic Engineers. Prepares policy statement with AIP on areas of responsibility for urban transportation, 109.

Isaacs, Stanley M.: 289.

J

Jackson, Michigan. Story of rehab demonstration program (illus.), 65.

Jacksonville, Florida. Brentwood Park after 23 years (illus.), 438.

Jacobs, Dorene E.: Ontario Housing editor asks permission to reprint Journal article on open occupancy experiments in Chicago, 113.

Jacobs, Jane: Summary of some reviews and comments on her book The Death and Life of Great American Cities, 118.

Jacobson, Robert C.: 172.

Jagger, Sid: 105.

James, Edward D.: Praises Journal issue stressing historic preservation, 424.

Jersey City, New Jersey. PHA task force working to straighten out low-rent housing operations, 258; Uses renewal land for library, 520.

John, Robert H.: Praises Journal issue on 25th anniversary of housing act, 550.

Johnson, Carl A.: Comments on Journal issue stressing historic preservation, 355.

Johnson, Dennis: 172, 352.

Johnson, Lyndon: Visits first USHA project in Austin, Texas (illus.), 437; Witness signing 1961 housing act (illus.), 444.

Jones, Madison S.: 104, 224.

Jones, Richard G.: 55; Program chairman for a public housing birthday party, 117; Moderator of NAHRO Relocation Workshop, 265; Program chairman of NAHRO's first housing division workshop (port.), 561.

Jorvig, Robert T.: Praises design of Lyndale Homes project in Minneapolis (illus.), 457.

Joyce, David: Offers article on relocation of displaced elderly, 228.

K

Kansas City, Missouri. Awards bid for apartment development, 574.

Karras, Mrs. Mead Smith: (illus.), 246; Codes and Conservation finding road to success blocked by "sacred cows," 381; Article on codes praised, 499.

Kassabaum, George S.: Named by HHFA to committee on aged, 416.

Kastor, Jack A.: Attends organizational meeting of NAHRO Missouri chapter (illus.), 38.

Keith, Nathaniel S.: Keynote speaker at NAHRO Southwest conference, 333.

Kellam, John R.: Praise for Massen book review, 177.

Kemp, Barbara: 412.

Kennedy, John F.: Announces he would name HHFA head Robert Weaver to head up urban affairs department if created, 7; Visits Alliance for Progress housing projects in Latin America (illus.), 25; Submits budget to Congress, 15; HHFA budget for fiscal 1964, 61; Sends transportation plan to Congress, 119; Submits standby public works program, 119; Names Anthony Celebrezze HEW secretary to replace Abraham Ribicoff, 294; Signs bill to help problem families, 295; Order on housing discrimination again rumored pending, 362; Considers tour to look at need for urban renewal, 362; Signs 1961 housing act (illus.), 444; Text of housing discrimination order, 518; Statement on effects of order, 519.

Kennewick, Washington. Housing project designed for single-family look (illus.), 458.

Kenosha, Wisconsin. City council cancels agreement with housing authority, 377.

Kentucky. Passes condominium legislation, 320.

Kessler, Philip: Jersey Architect magazine asks permission to reprint Journal article on Dyersburg public housing project, 113.

Key, William H.: Praises Journal, 115.

Kidd, Kenneth R.: 224.

Kirkwood, Missouri. Voters turn down urban renewal bond issues and rezoning proposal, 73; Voters turn down bond issue to pay local share of renewal projects, 517.

Klahn, Bert: Thanks NAHRO for reporting of GAO-Marin County, California, Housing Authority "quarrel," 287.

Kleinberg, Benjamin: LPA trainee graduate (illus.), 292.

Klutznick, Philip: FHA commissioner, 1944-1946 (port.), 439; Comment on role of public housing, 530.

Knowles, Ralph L.: Urban renewal design contest winner, 361.

Knox College. Renewal partner in Galesburg, Illinois (illus.), 504.

Knox, Robert D.: 8.

Kohfeldt, Margaret: (illus.), 269.

Kohler, Joseph J.: Discussant at workshop on 1961 housing act (illus.), 11.

Krueger, Louis J.: Praises article on architects contribution to urban renewal, 288.

Krooth, David L.: Court Decisions, 589; (port.) to prepare court decisions section for NAHRO Journal, 590.

L

La Barbera, Enrico: Answers critics of Oakland's code enforcement program, 498.

Laffan, James F.: 225.

Lafollette, Tennessee. Provides social services for public housing tenants, 125.

Laman, W. F. "Casey": Citizen of the year award goes to North Little Rock, Arkansas, mayor at NAHRO Southwest conference meeting, 333.

Lambert, Eugene R.: 548.

Lambert, W. Franklyn: 546.

LAND DISPOSITION. Nashville Housing Authority tries out three different systems to sell land in renewal area (illus.), 378; Carolina Association of Redevelopment Officials holds seminar on problems of (illus.), 417; Pittsburgh and St. Louis to pay commissions to real estate brokers for sale of urban renewal land, 520; Roundup of varied methods used in cities, 573.

LAND PURCHASE. Connecticut superior court upholds land purchase by housing authority of Danbury, 591. (See also Condemnation.)

LAND USE. In new Pittsburgh middle-income community, 130; Roundup of use of renewal land by cities for cultural centers (illus.), 520. (See also Downtown Renewal, Urban Renewal.)

Lane Bryant Annual Awards. Nominations invited, 402.

Lang, Edward L.: 411.

Lange, John: Named vice-chairman of new U. S. group to aid CIB, 398.

Lasch, Robert: St. Louis Post-Dispatch editor seeks permission to excerpt Journal articles on urban design in renewal projects, 112.

Lasker Foundation. Announces fellowships for housing, planning, or redevelopment study, 109.

LATIN AMERICA. Alliance for Progress makes housing instrument of American foreign policy (illus.), 22; Yale University starts program to help deal with housing and renewal problems, 37; Executives take UN course, 184.

Laurinburg, North Carolina. Approve bond issue for courthouse and jail in renewal area, 517.

Leary, Jack: (illus.), 529.

Ledbetter, Orelle L.: Elected president of NAHRO Southeastern Regional Council (illus.), 331.

Lee, William: 290.

Leeds, Morton: 352.

Leeth, Jack D.: 412.

LEGISLATION, FEDERAL. Workshop held in Providence on 1961 housing act (illus.), 11; Summary of issues on housing and renewal front facing 1962 session of Congress, 14; President Kennedy presents budget to Congress, 14; Pro and con discussion of anti-discrimination order by Kennedy, 15; Status of reorganization plan to establish Department of Housing and Urban Affairs, 60; Bill introduced to rehabilitate families, 62; Rural housing and rural renewal legislation before Congress, 62; Mass transit legislation under study, 62; Eminent domain policies under study, 62; Kennedy's transportation proposal sent to Congress, 119; Kennedy submits standby public works program, 119; NAHRO president reviews the demise of the Department of Housing and Urban Affairs, 151; Appropriation for HHFA agencies still pending as 1962 fiscal year ends, 230; House passes 1963 appropriations bill but cuts HHFA requests, 294; Bill to rehabilitate families passed and signed by president, 295; House waters down relocation payment procedures proposed in highway bill, 295; Elderly housing bill reported out by house committee, 295; Status of bills re housing and renewal as of September 4, 362; Status of HHFA appropriations for fiscal 1963, 363; Statement re action of appropriations committees, 363; HHFA appropriations bill passes and is signed by president, 428; Housing for elderly bill passes and is signed by president, 428; Senator Clark introduces bill to amend, and improve, Housing for the Elderly Act of 1962, 428; Mass transit bill dies, but funds to continue existing loan program to June 30, 1963, provided, 429; Legislative History of public housing traced through 25 years, 431; Highway Act of 1962 passed, including relocation payments, 501; Kennedy issues Executive Order banning racial discrimination in housing financed with federal funds, 501; Summary of 1962 legislation re savings and loan associations, 502; Rules committee fight holds key to prospect for major housing, renewal bill, 554; 1963 chances for Department of Urban Affairs and Housing look dim, 554; Hope mass transit bill will get early consideration, 555; Prospects for housing for elderly legislation look promising, 555.

LEGISLATION, STATE. California Housing Code strengthened, expanded by 1961 legislative action, 39; Roundup of laws to support renewal activity, 136; Roundup of state anti-bias laws, 137; Summary of state action on condominium legislation, 137; New state code legislation, 138; State action on housing, 139; Roundup of housing and renewal laws, 319.

Letters to the Editor. 111; 227; 287; 355; 424; 494; 549.

Lettis, Robert C.: Praises Journal series of articles on contribution of social scientists to renewal, 114.

Leutheuser, Edward T.: 352.

Leven, Charles L.: An Economist suggests how his profession can help in renewal job, 144.

Levenson, Frances: Summarizes state legislation concerning anti-discrimination in housing, 176.

Levi, Julian: Executive director of Southeast Chicago Commission proposes confiscation for non-complying slum buildings, 263.

Levine, Aaron: 6; Praises design talk of Commissioner Slayton, 496.

Levine, Melvin F.: 105.

Lieberman, Barnet: Named NAHRO Vice-President in charge of Codes Division (illus.), 55; 172; (port.), Reviews role of codes administration in renewal, 479; Praises Karras article on codes and conservation, 499; Speaks on codes at conference of Virginia Association of Sanitarians, 583; (illus.), 583.

Lima, Ohio. Voters turn down minimum housing standards but city accepts URA downtown renewal grant, 31.

Lipp, Jerome: 55.

Little, Don: (illus.), 269.

Little, Fred E.: 171.

Little Rock, Arkansas. Story of renewal projects, 28; Historic preservation part of urban renewal (illus.), 306; Philander Smith College participates in two city renewal projects (illus.), 511; Uses renewal land for cultural facilities, 520; Urban Progress Association social study seminar for high school teachers, 553; City employees attend community development seminar, 553.

Logan, Douglas Haig: 224.

Logue, Edward J.: 224; Speaker at NAHRO New England Regional Council mid-winter meeting, 272.

Los Angeles, California. Scouting decreases vandalism and maintenance costs in housing project, 193; County Board of Supervisors sponsors a "toy center," 194.

Los Banos, California. Voters approve public housing proposal, 521.

Louisiana. Passes condominium legislation, 320.

Louisville, Kentucky. Trys keysort system for tenant occupancy data record-keeping (illus.), 153.

Loula D. Lasker Fellowship Trust. Seeks applicants for graduate study, 551.

LOW-INCOME HOUSING. San Antonio Homebuilders testing low-cost houses as public housing substitute (illus.), 132; Roundup of section 207 demonstration grants, 236; Washington, D. C. gets grant to try out lease of large private houses for sub-lease to large, low-income families, 258; Province of Ontario trying out new ways to meet needs, 292; Roundup of city activities under FHA 221(d)(3) program, 318; New York state legislation to help 319; Roundup of HHFA demonstration programs, 358; University of Michigan studying use of plastics for low-cost houses, 361; Funds cut in 1963 appropriations bill for programs authorized in housing act of 1961, 428; Poverty in USA is special challenge to public housing (illus.), 562; New Social Goals proposed for public housing for the 60's, 566.

Loyola University. Creates interdisciplinary graduate curriculum in urban studies, 552.

Lyons, Daniel G.: Moderator of session at NAHRO's New England Regional conference (illus.), 390.

Lyons, Joseph H.: Discussant at workshop on 1961 housing act (illus.), 11.

Lyons, Matthew P.: (illus.), 331.

Mc

McCall, J. Hal.: (illus.), 331; Designs poster to encourage NAHRO national and regional membership, (illus.), 393.

McCann, William H.: Elected president of NAHRO's New England Regional Council, 391.

McCollum, John P.: Praises Journal article on use of architectural consultants in urban renewal, 111; Asks for reprints of skid row issue of Journal, 356.

McFarland, California. Voters say no to first proposal for public housing, 521.

McFarland, M. Carter: Alliance for Progress makes housing instrument of American foreign policy (illus.), 22; Describes program planning work of FHA (illus.), 240.

McGee, Cushman: 351.

McGill, Arthur C.: Discussant at workshop on 1961 housing act (illus.), 11.

McGuire, Marie C.: Disagrees with GAO criticism of Marin County, California, housing project, 251; Banquet speaker at NAHRO Pacific Southwest conference (illus.), 269; Tells NAHRO Middle Atlantic Regional Council workshop delegates they must keep public informed on public housing activities (illus.), 272; Speaker at NAHRO Southeastern conference, 330; 25 Years Ahead--a look at the future of public housing (port.), 430; PHA commissioner, 1961- (port.), 439; Witness signing 1961 housing act (illus.), 444; (illus.), 445.

McKeesport, Pennsylvania. Summary of urban renewal activities, 29.

McMurray, Joseph P.: Suggests new public housing approaches, 567; Honored as housing pioneer (port.), 572.

M

Macabe, William: Says public relations cannot be job of code enforcement personnel, 287.

MacAfee, Roy B.: Elected president of NAHRO North Central Regional Council (illus.), 270; Praises Journal coverage of NAHRO North Central conference and article on GAO opinion of California housing project, 356; Makes plans for North Central Council shirtsleeve clinics, 393.

Mackelmann, D. E.: 410.

Madison, Wisconsin. Gets first open space land grant (illus.), 10.

Mailloux, Al F.: 104.

MAINTENANCE. Use of Polysulfide Sealant is victory for maintenance savings over first cost (illus.), 90; Ecorse, Michigan, housing project uses steel framing to cut costs (illus.), 336.

New Products. High finish particleboard (illus.); Vinyl patching plaster; All-wax floor wax; Self-adjusting bracket (illus.); Free literature on polysulfide sealants, 42; Power fastener (illus.); Fast drying sealer; Improved door closer; Non-slip coating; Heavy duty nailer (illus.), 92; One-step masking (illus.); Safety wiring; wet-dry vacuum cleaner (illus.), 156; Patching tape; Condensation control; 4 the birds repellent; Drywall compound mixer (illus.); Free literature on specifications for metal lathing and furring and urethane finishes, 208; Floor tile heater; Intercom system; Closet augur and Portable pump (illus.); Washable furnace filters; Free literature on garbage disposers and fire doors and frames, 275; Toilet plunger (illus.); Handy maintenance aids--polyethelene paint roller tray, nokord windowwash runner, ladder scuff guards (illus.), 335; Flower pot holders (illus.); Rental door mats; Floor coating; Door weather seal (illus.), 397; Pipe and conduit caps (illus.); Graphic layout board for forms and drawings; Two-way radio, 481; Basin wrench (illus.); Epoxy wall paint (illus.); Replaceable heating and air conditioning filter (illus.); Free literature on electrical equipment and a handbook on plywood, 533; Tub-mounted grab bar (illus.); Versatile new adhesives; Shock Absorbing hammer (illus.), Bathtub wall of Micarta (illus.), 593.

MANAGEMENT. Letters to editor on article concerning, 113; Hints to the Housing Manager (illus.), 192; FHA task force working to straighten out Jersey City low-rent housing operations, 258.

Manley, Harold L.: Reports on results of code enforcement in Los Angeles area (illus.), 327.

Mandel, Harvey: 352.

Manly, William J.: Milwaukee Journal editor asks permission to use pictures and quotes on Journal story of use of architectural consultants in urban renewal, 111.

Marin County, California. GAO criticizes design and cost of public housing project, 250; Quotes from supporters of project, 251; Pictures and quotes from GAO with answers by the Marin project architects, 253; 255; 257; Albert Mayer praises good design of new project (illus.), 452; Housing authority reply to GAO criticism of project, 251.

Marked Tree, Arkansas. Builds housing for elderly (illus.), 75.

Marquette, Bleeker: Cincinnati's Housing History reviewed and evaluated for years from 1917 to 1962 (port.), 469; Honored as housing pioneer, 572.

Marquette University. Offers course in housing and renewal, 551.

Marshall, B. H., Jr.: (illus.), 331.

Marshall University. Renewal partner of Huntington, West Virginia, 512.

Martin, Chester R.: 223.

Martin, Joseph: Witness signing 1954 housing act (illus.), 443.

Maryland. Curb abuses by home improvement contractors, 138.

Maslen, Sydney: 500.

Massachusetts. Sets up fund to help localities pay their share of federally-aided renewal projects, 136; Stiffens anti-bias housing laws, 138.

Massachusetts State Housing Board. To Study relocation problems of middle- and upper-income Negroes, 173.

Massen, Marion: NAHRO's Director of Information takes job with Ford Foundation team working on problems of urban living in Calcutta, 341; Prime and Pertinent, 44, 95, 158, 210, 276, 339.

Mattlage, Floyd: 332.

Mauro, Edward M.: 223.

Maybank, Burnet: Witness signing 1949 housing act (illus.), 441.

Mayer, Albert: Expresses interest in Journal series on contributions of social scientists, 177; Public Housing Architecture evaluated from PWA days up to 1962 (illus.), 446; Honored as housing pioneer (port.), 572.

Meade, Hobart: (illus.), 529.

Melitzer, Herman M.: Praises Journal issue stressing welfare, 177.

Mellon, General Richard K.: Honored for services to housing and urban renewal in Pennsylvania, 56.

Melrose, Massachusetts. Alderman reject downtown project, 517.

Meridian, Mississippi. Voters turn down renewal program, 317.

Meriden, Connecticut. Opens first public housing project (illus.), 316.

Merkle, Arthur R.: 169; 223.

Merritt, George H.: Speaker at NAHRO's New England Regional conference (illus.), 390.

Methodist Convocation on Urban Life. Shows interest in renewal, 560.

Mexico. UNICEF to support urban project to clear up social and health problems, 184.

Miami, Florida. Housing for elderly program termed "full of imagination and good sense," (illus.), 461; Vote to create a renewal authority, 517; Vote to permit city to place a lien against properties to pay for demolition, 517.

Miami, Oklahoma. Northeastern Oklahoma A&M renewal partner of city, 506.

Michigan. Fair housing bill introduced in senate, 320.

MIDDLE-INCOME HOUSING. Pittsburgh Creates new community--tests out materials, methods, philosophies (illus.), 128; Planned for residential conservation area in Pittsburgh, 317; New York state legislation to stimulate, 319.

Mields, Hugh, Jr.: 290.

Miller, Morris: Court Decisions, 87; 205; 386. Appointed presiding judge of the District of Columbia Juvenile Court, 351; Succeeded as Journal Court Decisions author by David Krooth, 590.

Millich, William K.: 8.

Milwaukee Journal. Critical story about FHA home improvement loan program, 263.

Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Hillside redevelopment area design wins award from Progressive Architecture, 206; 221(d)(3) program used to refinance union-sponsored housing project, 318; Parklawn public housing project in operation for 25 years (illus.), 434; Uses renewal land for cultural facilities, 520.

Minert, Mary Ellen: 351.

Minneapolis, Minnesota. Golden Age Homes--space problems solved with an award-winning design (illus.), 134; 221(d)(3) program used for financing cooperative apartment, 318; Housing authority director says site and architectural design responsible for success of Lyndale Homes (illus.), 457; Uses renewal land for library, 520.

MINORITY GROUPS. (See Discrimination, Slums, Race Relations, Social Goals.)

Mississippi Association of Housing Authorities. Meeting and election of officers, 56; Annual meeting and election of officers, 527.

Mobile, Alabama. Historic preservation part of urban renewal (illus.), 308.

Mollen, Milton: 55.

Molligan, P. N., Sr.: Reports on NAHRO Southwest Council shirtsleeve clinics, 393.

Monasch, Walter J.: 411.

Monterey, California. Historic preservation part of urban renewal (illus.), 304; Delegates of National Trust for Historic Preservation convention tour historical preservation project, 497; Uses renewal land for cultural facilities, 520.

Montgomery, Roger: Named to new design position in URA, 417.

Montz, Stanley A.: 290.

Mount Clemens, Michigan. Clemens Homes praised for good design, economical construction and maintenance (illus.), 448.

Moyer, Robert S.: 6.

Mueller, Robert Franklin: 548.

Musgrave, Paul: (illus.), 527.

Myer, Dillon: FHA commissioner, 1946-1947 (port.), 439.

N

Nampa, Idaho. Housing project designed for casual western living (illus.), 458.

Nash, Peter H.: A Geographer suggests how his profession can help in renewal job, 83; Asks for reprints of article on contributions of geographers to renewal, 83. Seeks reprints of article on contribution of geographers to renewal for distribution to high school students, 228.

Nashua, New Hampshire. A public housing Christmas story, 581.

Nashville, Tennessee. Experiments with various types of land sale in renewal area (illus.), 379; Local colleges work with city in urban renewal program, 510.

Nathanson, Charles C.: 8.

National Association of County Officials. One of associations discussing federal-local issues at "workable program" meeting with HHFA, 230.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF HOUSING AND REDEVELOPMENT OFFICIALS. Announcement of group life insurance plan for members, 13; President Harmon looks at NAHRO's "image," 30; Gets Ford grant for training elderly housing project managers, 57; Sponsors European tour featuring 26th World Housing Congress for members (illus.), 69; President Harmon reviews NAHRO activities, 94; Highlights of John D. Lange's testimony to House committee on mass transit bill, 178; Offers tips to localities on celebration of 25th birthday of public housing, 191; Discusses problems of workable program for community improvement with HHFA, 230; Supports need for 1965 census of population and housing, 245; Board of Governors commends Marin County, California, Housing Authority for imagination and resourcefulness, 251; President Harmon takes a look at NAHRO "hidden services," 267; Gets second Ford grant for study of housing for elderly, 293; Journal editorial on historic preservation via urban renewal, 297; James Richardson reviews work of NAHRO Renewal Division, 329; Marion Massen leaves job of Director of Information to work with Ford Foundation team studying problems in urban living in Calcutta, 341; J. Robert Dumouchel succeeds Mrs. Massen, 341; Board of Governors makes policy decisions on national program issues and organizational matters, 392; Paris tour draws 44 members, 392; President Harmon evaluates NAHRO services to members, 395; Has booklets with tips to gain citizen support for housing and renewal, 400; Ernest J. Bohn first association president (illus.), 436; Housing program for U. S. hammered out at 1934 Baltimore conference, 436; First housing workshop draws big crowd and high praise (illus.), 530; Endorses proposal of a White House Conference on Urban Problems, 555; First national housing workshop stresses concerted services, 569; Housing workshop banquet honors "pioneers," (illus.), 572; President Harmon presents year-end review of NAHRO activities, 585; And HHFA prepare brochure to encourage college graduates to enter urban renewal field, 597.

Chapters. Missouri unit organized (illus.), 38; Southern California chapter sponsors codes conference (illus.), 327; Roundup of 1962-63 activities, 394; Announcement of officers of Chicago, Alamo, Great Lakes, and Potomac chapters, 394; Chicago group a co-sponsor of 10-week urban renewal institute, 553.

Committees. Social Work in Housing and Urban Renewal Committee seeks manuscripts on social work skills in public housing, renewal, 35; Report of Research committee Washington meeting and roundup of current activities (illus.), 246; List of Research Committee members, 247; Relocation Committee recommendations reflected in newly revised URA relocation requirements, 248; Public Relations Committee gets 1962 program under way, 273; Summary of Workable Program Committee recommendations to HHFA and changes made as a result, 394.

Divisions

Codes. Report of 4th conference (illus.), 198.

Housing. Plans celebration for public housing's 25th birthday, 117; Announcement of program for workshop in Chicago, 202; Discusses with PHA GAO criticism of Marin County, California, housing project, 251; T & M committee meets to plan workshop (illus.), 273; Announces workshop plans, summarizes committee activities, 392.

Renewal. Announces 7th national working conference to be held in July in Eugene, Oregon, 152; Announcement of program for workshop in Eugene, Oregon, 200; Summary of activities at seventh working conference held at University of Oregon (illus.), 328; Three papers on design given at Workshop in Eugene, Oregon (illus.), 372.

Journal of Housing. Letters to the Editor, 111; 176; 227; 287; 355; 424; 494; 549.

President's Corner. 30, 94, 151, 204, 267, 329, 395, 479, 531, 585.

Publications. 1961 Special Staff Report to All Renewal Division Members, 44; NAHRO Recommendations on Citizen Participation in Urban Renewal, 44; Selected References on Housing Codes, 44; Citizens Working Here!, 95; Some Current Urban Research in Colleges and Universities, 95; Index to 1961 Journal of Housing, 95; Reprints of Three Reviews of Jane Jacobs' "The Death and Life of Great American Cities," 158; NAHRO Publications, 1962 (annual catalog), 210; Change for the Better: Helping People Change through Housing and Urban Renewal, 276; 25 Years of Progress in Housing, 276; Automatic Data Processing for Use in Housing Code Enforcement, 534; Reprint from Congressional Record of Senator Williams' Reply to Reader's Digest Article on Urban Renewal, 534.

Regional Councils.

Middle Atlantic. Co-sponsor with Rutgers University of conference on urban renewal goals, 38; Workshop for commissioners stresses need for more communication with public, 272; Highlights of annual meeting in Toronto (illus.), 388; New officers, 389.

New England. Co-sponsor with PHA of workshop on 1961 housing act (illus.), 11; Highlights of mid-winter conference, 272; Highlights of annual meeting in Groton, Connecticut (illus.), 390; New officers, 391.

North Central. Highlights of annual meeting in Peoria, Illinois (illus.), 270; New officers (illus.), 270; Roy MacAfee praises Journal coverage of conference, 356; Tells plans for shirtsleeve clinics, 393.

Pacific Northwest. Hold workshop on workable program, 393; HHFA spokesman outlines "workable program," 524; Highlights of annual meeting in Tacoma (illus.), 528; New officers, (illus.), 529.

Pacific Southwest. Celebration of public housing's 25th birthday includes booklet on region accomplishments, 117; Highlights of annual meeting in Riverside, California (illus.), 268; New officers, 269; Girl Scouts say thanks for help of local housing authorities, 273.

Southeast. Girl Scouts say thanks for help of local housing authorities, 273; Highlights of annual meeting in Bal Harbour, Florida (illus.), 330. New officers (illus.), 331.

Southwest. Report on housing-urban renewal workshop, 265; Highlights of annual meeting in Wichita (illus.), 332; New officers (illus.), 332; Evaluation of nine shirtsleeve clinics held during year, 393.

National Association of Real Estate Boards. Critical of FHA home improvement loan program, 263.

National Council of Churches. Demonstrate interest in urban renewal participation, 560.

National Housing Conference. Report of annual meeting, 106.

National Institute of Public Affairs. To administration Ford grant for training of federal officials, 56.

National Public Housing Conference. Pioneer backer of public housing, 431.

National Trust for Historic Preservation. Renewal officials support program, 416; Comments on Journal issue stressing preservation, 355; 424; URA Commissioner Slayton addresses annual meeting, 497.

Naugatuck, Connecticut. Voters reject two renewal projects, 317.

Naylor, Dowell, Jr.: Presents Southwest Regional Council awards (illus.), 333.

Nelson, Harlan A.: 54.

Nelson, Lowell: California Housing Code strengthened by 1961 legislative action, 39; (illus.), 269; Explains California's new housing law at NAHRO chapter codes conference (illus.), 327.

Nenno, Mary K.: To direct NAHRO study of problems of elderly displacees, with Ford grant, 293; Washington Report, 14; 61; 119; 230; 294; 362; 428; 501; 554.

Nesbitt, George: (illus.), 246.

Neumann, Stuart K.: Urban renewal design contest winner, 361.

New Albany, Indiana. Likes prefabs for low-rent housing (illus.), 462.

New Hampshire. Bans discriminatory references in rental or sale of property, 138.

New Haven, Connecticut. Redevelopment agency story of rehab demonstration program (illus.), 64; Middle-ground neighborhoods (illus.), 68; Housing authority maintenance and management staff take civil defense course (illus.), 139; Neighborhood Rehabilitation is working in six projects in New Haven; here's how (illus.), 185; Gets a section 207 low-income housing demonstration grant, 236; Gets Ford Foundation grant to test new methods of solving urban social problems, 260; Gets HHFA grant to test method of housing low-income families, 358; To lease land in renewal project area to Macy's department store for new building, 573.

New Jersey. Grants concessions to private renewal developers, 136; Plans to tighten anti-bias laws re housing, 138; Seeks law to cover middle-income housing needs, 139; Passes receivership bill, 320; Law to add privately financed housing to anti-bias treatment proposed, 320; Writes state housing code that cities can adopt by reference, 584.

New Mexico. Anti-bias housing laws fail, 138.

Newport, Kentucky. A public housing Christmas story, 581.

Newport, Rhode Island. Housing managers help provide tenant health care, 192; Voters approve renewal bond issue, 517.

New York City. Opens 100th public housing project (illus.), 77; New modern zoning resolution replaces 1906 code, 77; Dedicates Robert A. Taft houses, 77; Provides study lounge for housing boys and girls (illus.), 193; Mayor Wagner compares city with European communities, 373; Good design of public housing project compared with bleak private project for middle-income families (illus.), 450; 455; 456; Uses renewal land for cultural facilities, 520; Public Housing Via Rehab tried out in over 300 units (illus.), 523; Gives tax benefits to owners who bring old building up to code standards, 584; Open houses in public housing projects part of 25th anniversary celebration (illus.), 586.

New York State. Constitutional amendment proposed to aid middle-income housing, 136; Tightens anti-bias laws re discrimination in housing, 138; Working on bill to pay cities for necessary building repairs, 138; Summary of Governor Rockefeller's proposals for housing, 139; State and City of Albany both want 98.5-acre downtown site, 258; Summary of state housing legislation, 319; Report of renewal legislation, 320; New policy will help reduce racial segregation in housing, 320; Voters say no to LIFE program to help pay rents of low-income families, 521; State legislation strengthens code enforcement in New York City, 320; Reader corrects information on Journal story re state code enforcement legislation for New York City, 426.

New York State Association of Urban Renewal Officials. Meeting and election of officers, 293.

New York University. Graduate students in public administration get practical experience in housing and urban renewal, 552.

Niethammer, William A.: 105.

Noe, Clyde C.: 104.

Noresco, Inc.: Says realer response to its new product good, 288.

Norfolk, Virginia. To study downtown fallout shelter needs, 78; Housing authority wins National Safety Council Award, 260; Uses renewal land for library, 520; Holds design contest to choose development for downtown residential project, 573.

Norman, Harry L.: 548.

Northeastern Oklahoma A & M. Renewal partner of Miami, Oklahoma, 506.

Nunn, McClinton: Plans Toledo public housing birthday celebration, 117.

O

Oakland, California. Gets Ford Grant to test ways to help people in depressed neighborhoods, 9; Code enforcement teams up with city's social service agencies, 582.

Odinov, Nancy: LPA trainee graduate (illus.), 292.

Odor, C. K., Jr.: 105.

Ogburn, Calvin P.: LPA trainee graduates, 106.

Ohio. Anti-bias housing laws fail, 138.

Ohio State University. Professors get scholarship for design research, 38.

Olson, Chester: (illus.), 332.

Omaha, Nebraska. Voters approve 580 units for housing elderly, 521.

OPEN OCCUPANCY. Policy for new Providence, Rhode Island housing project, 260. (See also Discrimination, Legislation, State.)

OPEN SPACE LAND. Madison, Wisconsin, gets first grant under 1961 housing act provisions (illus.), 10; Roundup of federal grants for local purchase of land, 359; Funds cut in 1963 appropriations bill for programs authorized in housing act of 1961, 428; Good and poor use, 450, 455, 456.

Oregon. Authorizes financing of renewal projects thru revenue bonds, 136.

Orem, David S.: 224.

Organization of American States. Helps Yale with program to help Latin American schools deal with housing and renewal problems, 37.

P

Park, Maurice F.: Seeks help on planning glossary, 550.

Parke, R. Tinsley: Attends organizational meeting of NAHRO Missouri chapter (illus.), 38.

Parmelee, Kenneth A.: 104.

Pascarell, Joseph: (illus.), 259; Praises NAHRO Journal, 427.

Pawinski, Carl P.: Milwaukee housing manager retires after 21 years (illus.), 434.

Pearsall, Texas. Voters 4 to 1 against renewal, 317.

Pease, Robert B.: Pittsburgh Wins in renewal bond vote: here's the "campaign" story, 376.

Pennsylvania. State makes agreement with FHA to enforce new state law barring discrimination, 120; Appropriates money to help cover local share of renewal projects, 137; Prohibits discrimination in sale or rental of almost all property, 138.

Pennsylvania Association of Housing and Redevelopment Authorities. Annual meeting and election of officers, 56; Honors outstanding services of General Richard K. Mellon, 56.

Peoria, Illinois. Celebrates 25th anniversary of public housing, 401.

Perkins, J. Lester: 500.

PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION. Circuit court overrules dismissal of Huntington, West Virginia housing employee, 87; Reader cites effectiveness of Journal Personnel Exchange, 288.

PERSONNEL EXCHANGE. 46, 98, 161, 213, 278, 342, 402, 486, 537, 597.

Petshek, Kirk: 55.

Pettibone, Holman D.: 290.

Philadelphia. Story of design competition for Washington Square East-Society Hill project (illus.), 16; Report on use of Section 220 for rehabilitation in Powelton area, 41; Story of Redevelopment authority's rehab demonstration program (illus.), 66; First homes in Eastwick redevelopment area go on sale (illus.), 86; Design for downtown waterfront renewal project wins award from Progressive Architecture, 206; Code enforcement procedures get new teeth, 264; Uses scattered-site public housing in renewal area (illus.), 467; Voters approve redevelopment bond issue, 517; Uses renewal land for cultural facilities, 520.

Philadelphia Historical Commission. Pioneer in historic preservation in renewal areas, 424.

Philander Smith College. Renewal partner of Little Rock (illus.), 511.

Pincus, William: LPA trainee graduate (illus.), 292.

Pine Bluff, Arkansas. Voters approve bond issue for civic center, 517.

Pine, Samuel W.: 8.

Pitman, New Jersey. Downtown renewal terminated by voter disapproval, 517.

Pitts, Robert B.: 548.

Pittsburgh. ACTION-Housing may get Ford Foundation help for social and physical renewal work, 9; Redevelopment authority gives URA commissioner painting of Allegheny Center project (illus.), 29; Pittsburgh Creates New Community-tests out materials, methods, philosophies (illus.), 128; Story of four city "renaissance" projects, 316; Voters approve renewal bond issue, 376; Duquesne University renewal partner of city, 503; Uses renewal land for cultural facilities, 520; To pay commissions to real estate brokers for sale of urban renewal land, 520.

Pittsburgh Plate Glass Foundation. Announces urban renewal and planning fellowships, 109; Winners, 291; Seeks applicants for city planning and renewal graduate study, 551.

PLANNING. Columbia to offer bachelor's degree in, 37; Case Institute of Technology announces graduate program, 37; The Planner's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding, 371.

Platt, Charles C.: Suggests way to outwit slum lords, 115.

Plymouth, Massachusetts. First urban renewal project approved by voters, 517.

Port Huron, Michigan. Uses renewal land for library, 520.

Portland Cement Association. Publishes booklets with tips to gain citizen support for housing and renewal, 400.

Portland, Oregon. Housing Authority uses section 608 to buy apartments for senior citizen use (illus.), 380; Dedicate project as part of 25th anniversary of public housing celebration (illus.), 586.

Portsmouth, New Hampshire. Historic preservation part of urban renewal (illus.), 301.

Potter, John: Toledo, Ohio, mayor proclaims a week to mark 25th anniversary of public housing, 586.

POVERTY. (See Slums, Discrimination, Social Goals.)

Pratt Institute of Brooklyn. Gets HHFA grant to build prototype apartments to test new materials, 358.

Price, Alfred D.: First manager of Buffalo's Willert Park Courts still on job (illus.), 438.

Price, Don K.: 223.

Price, Henry E.: 289.

Price, Ruthmary: 332.

PRIME AND PERTINENT. Reviews of and listing of new publications, 4, 95, 158, 210, 276, 339, 399, 482, 534, 595.

PRIVATE PROPERTY. Neighborhood Rehabilitation is working in six projects in New Haven; here's how (illus.), 185; Tulsa to experiment with subsidized, option-to-buy homes, 258; Roundup of city activities to help low-income families buy and rent homes under FHA 221(d)(3) program, 318; Cities to test feasibility of leasing large single-family houses for large low-income families, 236; Building in Sylacauga, Alabama, renewal area, 513. (See also Condominium Housing, Conservation.)

PROBLEM FAMILIES. Ford Foundation gives Oakland, California grant to study ways to help, 9; Bill introduced to rehabilitate families, 62; Housing-Welfare team up to bring social services to public housing, 121; St. Louis Housing-Welfare Tie-up already under way; may be first "demonstration city," 123; Chicago Public Housing-Welfare Program Grows, 124; Lafollette, Tennessee Cites Experience in providing social services for public housing tenants, 125; Roundup of local reactions to housing-welfare teamwork plans, 126; Dallas Housing Authority stresses health, education, and welfare services to tenants (illus.), 127; Ford Foundation gives New Haven grant to test new methods of solving problems of, 260; Bill to assist passed and signed by president, 295; Attend Baltimore housing clinic to learn "urban" way of living, 321; Bexar County, Texas, experiments with plan for housing migratory workers and training them for new work, 358; St. Louis to try to meet social needs, 473.

PROFESSIONAL DIRECTORY. Abbott & Adams, Inc., 5, 53, 108, 169, 221, 284, 349, 416, 493, 545; Arthur D. Little, Inc., 4, 52, 107, 167, 219, 282, 347, 415, 491, 544; Ashton and Associates, 4, 52, 107, 167, 219, 282, 347, 415, 491, 544; Barton-Aschman Associates, Inc., 4, 52, 107, 167, 219, 282, 347, 415, 491, 544; Brown & Anthony, 5; Candeub, Fleissig & Associates, 5, 53, 108, 168, 220, 283, 348, 414, 492, 543; Capital Improvement Programmers, 493, 545; City Planning Associates, Inc., 4, 52, 107, 167, 219, 282, 347, 415, 491, 544; C. Warren Fox & Associates, 6, 54, 109, 169, 221, 284; Dan F. Collins, 4, 52, 107, 167, 219, 284, 349, 416, 493; De Leuw, Cather and Company, 5, 53, 108, 168, 220, 283; Doxiadis Associates, Inc., 4, 52, 107, 167, 219; Ewin Engineering Associates, 6, 54, 109, 169, 221, 284, 349, 416, 493, 545; Fred R. O'Donnell, 5, 53, 108, 168, 220, 283, 349, 416, 493, 545; Hare and Hare, 283, 348, 414, 492, 543; Herbert H. Smith Associates, 5, 53, 108, 168, 220, 283, 348, 414, 492, 543; Jack N. Oppenheim, 5, 53, 108, 168, 220, 283, 348, 414, 492, 543; John Beggs, 4, 52, 107, 167, 219, 282, 347, 415, 491, 544; Land Acquisition Service, Inc., 5, 53, 108, 168, 220, 283, 349, 416, 493, 545; Leo A. Daly, 5, 53, 108, 168, 220, 283, 348, 414, 492, 543; Mac Connell &Co., 4, 52, 107, 167, 219, 282, 347, 415, 491, 544; Management Services Associates, Inc., 5, 53, 108, 168, 220, 283, 348, 414, 492; Metcalf & Eddy, 493, 543; Mid-America Appraisal Corp., 4, 52, 107, 167, 219, 282, 347, 415, 491, 544; Morton Hoffman, 4, 53, 108, 168, 220, 283, 348, 414, 492, 543; Parkins, Rogers & Associates, 4, 52, 107, 167, 220, 284, 349, 416, 493, 545; Ralph Wenger and Company, 4, 52, 107, 167, 219, 283, 348, 414, 492, 543; Raymond & May Associates, 5, 53, 108, 169, 221, 282, 347, 415, 491, 544; Real Estate Research Corporation, 5, 53, 108, 168, 220, 282, 347, 415, 491, 544; Relocation and Management Associates, Inc., 6, 54, 109, 169, 221, 284, 349, 416, 493, 545; Roy Wenzlick & Co., 4, 52, 107, 167, 219, 282, 347, 415, 491, 544; Runnells & Winholtz, 6, 54, 109, 169, 221, 284, 349, 416, 493, 545; Sanders A. Kahn Associates, Inc., 5, 53, 108, 168, 220, 283, 348, 414, 492, 543; Sidney L. Warsawyer & Son, 6, 54, 109, 169, 221, 284; Urban Redevelopment Associates, 169, 221, 284, 348, 414, 492, 543;

Urban Renewal Real Estate Services, 4, 52, 107, 167, 219, 282, 347, 415, 491, 544; Vilican-Leman & Associates, Inc., 5, 53, 108, 168, 220, 283, 348, 414, 492, 543. (See also Advertisers.)

Progressive Architecture. Announces design awards to three renewal projects, 206.

Providence, Rhode Island. New residential redevelopment project to be integrated housing, 260; Historic preservation part of urban renewal (illus.), 298; Racially integrated housing development going up, 318; Uses architects to help property owners in conservation areas (illus.), 326; Trys downtown location for housing for elderly (illus.), 461.

PUBLICATIONS. Annotated listing on: Aged, see Elderly; Building Methods, 534; Church Participation, 483, 595, 596; Cities, 44; Citizens Education, 339; Citizen Participation, 276, 535; Codes, 278, 340; Committeeman's Guide, 341; Community Services, 160; Cooperatives, 96, 211, 401; Crime Prevention, 483; Demolition and Clearance, 596; Design, 211; Elderly, 96, 160, 211, 401, 483, 535, 596; Financing, 483, 535; Historic Preservation, 339; Housing, 96, 158, 277, 401, 482, 535; Human Relations, 45, 211, 340; Land Disposition, 482, 535; Land Use, 400, 596; Miscellaneous (housing redevelopment related), 97, 160, 212, 278, 401, 483, 535, 597; Open Space, 210, 535; Planning, 341, 483, 535; Public Works, 596; Race Relations, 97, 482, 534; Rehabilitation, 276, 340, 399, 596; Relocation, 212, 534; Research, 95, 277, 341; Social Problems, 211; Urban Renewal, 45, 95, 159, 210, 276, 340, 399, 534, 595. (See also NAHRO, Publications, NAHRO, Renewal Information Service, Free Literature listings in CONSTRUCTION, New Products, and MAINTENANCE, New Products.)

PUBLIC HOUSING. Pro and con discussion of an executive order by Kennedy banning discrimination in federally assisted housing, 15; Rent insurance plan offered by Minnesota mutual insurance company, 21; Greenville, North Carolina, establishes a housing authority, 31; New York City opens 100th project (illus.), 77; Public Housing Sites--renewal areas must provide more of them, 79; Letters to editor on management of, 113; Roundup of plans for 25th birthday celebration, 117; Summary of anti-discrimination activities of federal agencies, Congress, and U. S. Supreme Court, 120; Housing-Welfare team up to bring social services to public housing, 121; St. Louis Housing-Welfare Tie-up already under way; may be first "demonstration city," 123; Chicago Public Housing-Welfare Program Grows, 124; Lafollette, Tennessee cites experiences in providing social services for public housing tenants, 125; Roundup of local reactions to housing-welfare teamwork plans, 126; Dallas Housing Authority stresses health, education, and welfare services to tenants (illus.), 127; San Antonio Homebuilders testing low-cost houses as public housing substitute (illus.), 132; NAHRO offers tips to localities on celebration of 25th birthday of housing act, 191; Roundup of services provided (illus.), 193; Program announced for NAHRO division workshop, 202; Readers discuss housing-welfare cooperation in letter to editor, 227; The General Accounting Office performs housing, renewal role via spot-check audits, 249; Public Housing, Relocation--are these two programs working together,? 265; NAHRO Pacific Southwest conference has theme for silver anniversary of, 268; NAHRO Middle Atlantic Regional Council workshop stresses need to inform public, 272; Province of Ontario trying out new ways to meet low-income housing needs, 292; Ontario Association of Housing Authorities conducting intensive public housing study; 292; Meriden, Connecticut, opens first project (illus.), 316; Run-down of referenda results, 317; Special session to note 25th anniversary held at NAHRO southeastern conference, 330; Agency officials report to Senate on program progress under '61 act (illus.), 357; Presidential order on housing discrimination again rumored pending, 362; Portland, Oregon, housing authority buys private apartment house for conversion to housing for elderly (illus.), 380; Projects under way on three Indian reservations, 380; Cities celebrate 25th anniversary of, 401; PHA and HEW set up joint task force (illus.), 445; 25 Years Ahead--a look at the future of public housing, 430; Legislative History of public housing traced through 25 years (illus.), 431; Portraits of commissioners from 1937 to 1962, 439; Public Housing Architecture evaluated from PWA days up to 1962 (illus.) 446; Converted war housing in Seattle stands test of time (illus.), 463; Journal reader praises work of architect for Richmond, California, housing project, 494; 25th anniversary of housing act issue of Journal praised, 494; In Sylacauga, Alabama, renewal area (illus.), 513; Report on yes and no votes for projects, 521; New York City experiments with rehabilitation of old buildings for (illus.), 523; Special session to celebrate 25th anniversary held at NAHRO's first housing workshop, 530; Roundup of academic and in-service training activities, 551; Charge churches neglect needs of residents of, 558; Poverty in USA is special challenge to public housing (illus.), 562; New Social Goals proposed for public housing for the 60's, 566; The PHA story, 571; Roundup story of 25th anniversary celebration (illus.), 586. (See also Elderly, Housing for; European Housing, Low-Income Housing and Middle-Income Housing.)

PUBLIC HOUSING ADMINISTRATION. Teams up with NAHRO New England Regional Council to conduct two-day workshop (illus.), 11; Development division reorganized, 15; Report on work of program planning office, 239; Sends task force to Jersey City to straighten out low-rent housing operations, 258; Hires expert consulting help to raise design quality in housing, 374; The PHA story (illus.), 571.

PUBLIC RELATIONS. Neighborhood Rehabilitation is working in six projects in New Haven; here's how (illus.), 185; Cincinnati's urban renewal department explains conservation effort in Avondale-Corryville area and offers concrete help to homeowners, 263; Reader says not a job of code enforcement personnel, 287; Baltimore's Housing Clinic substitutes teaching for fining housing code violators, 321; Code enforcement and conservation attempts blocked by "sacred cows," 381; Reader says part of job of code enforcement personnel, 356; Publications with tips to gain citizen support for housing and renewal, 400; Another reader says essential part of code enforcement job, 424; Another reader speaks on public relations and code enforcement, 498; Newspapers devote space to mark 25th anniversary of public housing, 588.

PUBLIC WORKS. Kennedy submits standby program to Congress, 119; Program passed by Congress in September, 1962, gets under way, 501.

PUBLIC WORKS ADMINISTRATION. Projects pave way for U. S. Housing Authority, 432.

Puerto Rico. Self-housing (illus.), 23; Site of first FHA-insured condominium, 318.

Putnam, Charlton D.: 104.

R

RACE RELATIONS. 314 grant made for study of relocation problem of middle- and upper-income Negroes, 173. Poverty in USA is special challenge to public housing (illus.), 562; New Social Goals proposed for public housing for the 60's, 566.

Rafkind, Israel: Describes program planning work of CFA (port.), 240.

Rafsky, William: NAHRO workable program committee chairman recommends changes to HHFA, 394.

Rains, Albert: Honored at annual meeting of National Housing Conference, 106.

Ramseur, Walter G.: 411.

Rapkin, Chester: To direct Ford financed monographs on characteristics of elderly displacees, 293.

Ratchford, Floyd J.: (illus.), 529.

Rathbun, Daniel B.: (illus.), 246.

Ravin, Selma: LPA trainee graduate (illus.), 292.

Ravitz, Mel J.: A Sociologist suggests how his profession can help in renewal job, 32.

Reach, Barbara: Corrects information on New York code enforcement legislation, 426.

REALTORS. Washington Board of gives money to National Capital Housing Authority for social and educational services to tenants, 464. Pittsburgh and St. Louis to pay commissions to for sale of urban renewal land, 520; Real Estate Board of Greater Baltimore supports public housing and urban renewal, 522. Washington, D. C. Board of Realtors announces support for public housing and urban renewal, 522.

RECREATION FACILITIES. In public housing, 193; Roundup of federal grants for local purchase of open space, 359.

REDEVELOPERS. Large interest in Cincinnati city center projects, 378; Good design wins two Washington projects for D. C. Realty and Development Corporation, 379; Roundup of city awards for renewal, 573; Zeckendorf sells five projects to Alcoa Corporation, 580.

Redlands, California. Lugonia Homes "age" well (illus.), 459.

Reed, Earl H.: Praises Journal issue on historic preservation, 425.

REFERENDA. Fontana, California, voters say no to housing for elderly, 31; Goshen, California, approves 20-unit low-rent project, 31; Colton, California, voters okey housing for elderly proposal, 31; Greenville, North Carolina, approves first renewal project and establishment of a housing authority, 31; Lima, Ohio, voters turn down minimum housing standards proposal, but city accepts URA grant for downtown renewal, 31; Kirkwood, Missouri, voters turn down urban renewal bond issues and rezoning proposal, 73; St. Louis, Missouri, community improvement bond issues fail to get two-thirds majority votes, 73; Naugatuck, Connecticut, rejects two renewal projects to fix up flood damaged areas, 317; Meridian, Mississippi, votes down proposed renewal program, 317; Cleveland renewal project held up by litigation headed for U. S. Supreme Court, 317; Decatur, Georgia, voters turn down urban renewal bond issue, 317; Suffern, New York, says no to downtown project, 317; Pearsall, Texas, voters 4 to 1 against renewal, 317; Williams, California, voters turn down public housing, 317; Tucson city council abandons urban renewal, 317; Cambridge, Massachusetts, city council puts renewal out of business, 317; California voters say no to bond issue to finance housing for elderly, 317; Cape Girardeau, Missouri, says no to more public housing units, 317; Fresno, California, says no to more public housing units, 317; Report on yes and no votes for urban renewal projects, 517; Report on yes and no votes for public housing, 521.

Regan, William J.: 104.

REHABILITATION. Chicago property owners first in area to receive Section 220 loan, 40; Case study of use of Section 220 in Philadelphia, 41; Architects Get in Rehab Act in conservation areas of 20 cities (illus.), 63; First Cities to Use New Demonstration Rehab Program Use Architects (illus.), 65; Pennsylvania common pleas court stops Philadelphia Housing Authority work on rehabilitation of noncontiguous old houses, 87; Contractors form new professional association, 173; Neighborhood Rehabilitation is working in six projects in New Haven; here's how (illus.), 185; Session on Human side of rehabilitation held at NAHRO codes conference, 199; Reynolds Metals Company completes apartment test project in Baltimore (illus.), 262; FHA improvement loans criticized and program lags, 263; Indianapolis testing methods to help low-income families renovate homes, 521; New York City converts old buildings for public housing (illus.), 523; Pennsylvania supreme court approves Philadelphia project to rehabilitate noncontiguous old houses, 589.

Reiner, B. F.: Praises Journal and offers article ideas, 116.

Reiner, R. F.: European Housing focus of committee of Economic Commission for Europe, 183.

RELOCATION. 314 grant given for study of problems of middle- and upper-income Negroes, 173; URA tightens up relocation requirements in new manual, 248; Tarrytown, New York, plans in advance (illus.), 259; Public Housing, Relocation--are these two programs working together?, 265; NAHRO gets Ford Foundation grant for elderly housing study with emphasis on relocation problems, 293; House waters down payment procedures proposed in highway bill, 295; Error in story on URA revisions on page 248 corrected, 319; Prospects for highway relocation payments look better, 429; Highway Act of 1962 passed and included relocation payments, 501; Careful planning of Sylacauga, Alabama, 513; Philadelphia to test techniques in skid row areas, 522.

Reno, Nevada. City council appeals court decision that urban renewal project is illegal, 377.

RENTS. Rent insurance plan offered by Minnesota mutual insurance company, 21; Washington, D. C. gets grant to try out lease of large private house for sub-lease to large, low-income families, 258; Tulsa gets grant to try subsidized, option-to-buy homes, 258.

RESEARCH. Universities widen efforts to meet renewal training, research needs, 37; House Committee on Public Works creates committee to study eminent domain policies, 62; 314 grant given for study of relocation problems of middle- and upper-income Negroes, 173; Journal editorial on The Present State of Urban Research, 232; Urban Research has growing role to play in urban renewal, 233; Senator suggests ways to meet need for, 235; Five HHFA "Shops" at work on urban studies, program evaluations, 237; The score on "314" demonstrations, 242; Canadian Council on Urban and Regional Research formed, 243; Housing Census Advisory Committee looks at information programs for housing, renewal, 244; NAHRO's Research Committee Grows--interests reflect expansion of housing, renewal (illus.), 246; Housing Census Advisory Committee looks at information programs for housing, renewal, 244; NAHRO supports need for 1965 census of population and housing, 245; Readers praise Journal issue emphasizing, 287; Reader praises Journal articles on research, 356; Roundup of HHFA demonstration programs, 358; Cornell University adds new division of urban studies, 551.

Reynolds, James F.: Session speaker at workshop on 1961 housing act (illus.), 11.

Reynolds Metals Company. Completes a rehabilitation test project in Baltimore (illus.), 262.

Rhode Island. Tightens anti-bias housing legislation, 138; State legislature asked to add hot water requirement to minimum housing standards, 138; Legislature adjourns without acting on anti-bias bill to extend coverage to all housing, 320; Hot water will be part of housing code requirement in state, 320.

Ribicoff, Abraham: (illus.), 121; (illus.), 445.

Rice, Carroll: Panel member of NAHRO Relocation Workshop, 265.

Rice, Frank S.: Praises NAHRO Journal, 427.

Richardson, James D.: Banquet chairman of a public housing birthday party, 117; (illus.), 269; (port.), Reviews work of NAHRO Renewal Division, 329.

Richmond, California. Easter Hill project praised for good use of terrain (illus.), 449; Housing Authority praises architect's design, 494.

Richmond, Frederick W.: (illus.), 193.

Ridley, Clarence E.: 223.

Ringer, Paul: (illus.), 389.

Robbins, Ira: Speaker at NAHRO Southeastern conference, 330; Speaker at NAHRO's New England Regional conference (illus.), 390; Author of first public housing bill, 435; Banquet master of ceremonies of NAHRO's first housing division workshop (port.), 561.

Rochester, New York. Midtown Plaza, downtown renewal project open for business (illus.), 261.

Rockrise, George: Speaks on design in urban renewal at NAHRO Renewal Workshop, 372; The Architect's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding, 375.

Rody, Martin J.: 290.

Rollow, Ora Belle: Panel member of NAHRO Relocation Workshop, 265.

Roosevelt, Franklin D.: Dedication speech of nation's first public housing project quoted, 432; (port.), 435.

Rose, Alvin: Reports on Chicago housing-welfare program, 124; Host of NAHRO's first housing division workshop (port.), 561.

Rosien, Barbara: 104.

Rossman, Gene: (illus.), 380.

Rotz, George: (illus.), 199.

Rouby, Jason: 169; Praises NAHRO Journal, 427.

Ruberoid Company. Announces winners of its urban renewal design contest, 361.

Ruckman, Charles A.: 172.

RURAL HOUSING. Amendments introduced to increase funds for, 62; Wasco, California, votes no for units for farm laborers, 521.

RURAL RENEWAL PROGRAMS. Legislation to provide funds for variety of aids before Congress, 62.

Rutgers University. Co-sponsor with NAHRO regional council of conference on urban renewal goals, 38; Offers fellowships in field of urban affairs to persons in responsible positions, 398.

Ryan, George J.: Director Mount Clemens, Michigan, housing commission praises design and economical construction and maintenance of Clemens Homes (illus.), 448.

S

Sailer, William P.: Praises Journal issue stressing welfare, 177.

Salisbury, North Carolina. Reasons for receiving All-America City Award, 143.

San Antonio. Homebuildings testing low-cost housing as public housing substitute (illus.), 132; TB Board trains tenants to be homemakers for their neighbors, 192; Victoria Plaza dramatic example of good housing for elderly (illus.), 460. (See also Bexar County.)

Sanders, Joe M.: (illus.), 269.

San Francisco. Story of design competition for Red Rock Hill section of Diamond Heights project (illus.), 19; Redevelopment agency sponsors course on moderate-priced private housing, 291; Employees bail out redevelopment agency lacking $24 to buy streets, 318; Discussion of Diamond Heights projects (illus.), 578.

San Jose, California. Court gives go-ahead to downtown redevelopment plans, 140.

San Juan, Puerto Rico. Historic preservation part of urban renewal (illus.), 312.

San Louis Obispo, California. Voters turn down public housing proposal, 521.

San Marcos, Texas. Voters approve renewal project for expansion of local college, 517.

Santa Maria, California. Voters approve public housing proposal, 521.

Santa Monica, California. Story of design competition for Ocean Park project (illus.), 17.

Santiago, Chile. Self-help housing (illus.), 27.

Savage, Bruce: Named by HHFA to committee on aged, 416; PHA commissioner, 1960-1961 (port.), 439.

Savage, Theodore H.: 6.

Scarritt College. Renewal partner of Nashville, 510.

SCATTERED-SITE HOUSING. Cities to test feasibility of leasing large single-family houses for large low-income families, 236; Toledo single-family homes successful (illus.), 464; Cedartown, Georgia, highly satisfied with 7-year experience (illus.), 466; Philadelphia using device in renewal area (illus.), 467; Reader seeks reprints of Philadelphia article, 494.

Schaller, Lyle E.: Praises NAHRO Journal, 426; The Church reacts to urban renewal: a case study of alternative (illus.), 556; Says churches neglect public housing residents, 558.

Scheuer, James H.: 54; Private developer defends public housing, 389.

Schmitz, Harry W.: 104.

Schorr, Alvin L.: Writes letter to editor on housing-welfare cooperation, 228.

Schrunk, Terry: Portland, Oregon, mayor proclaims a week to mark 25th anniversary of public housing, 586.

Schussheim, Morton J.: Attends UN-sponsored session on housing demand in Europe, 184; Urban Research has growing role to play in urban renewal (port.), 233; Praises Journal issue emphasizing research, 287.

Scott, W. W.: 410.

Sears, Jerome F.: (illus.), 327.

Sears-Roebuck Foundation. How 12 universities spend their "cost of education grant," 38; Announces urban renewal and planning fellowships, 109.

Seattle, Washington. War housing converted to public housing stands test of time (illus.), 463.

SEGREGATION. (See Discrimination, Slums, Social Goals, Race Relations.)

Seidman, Bert: 289.

SELF-HELP CONSTRUCTION AND RENEWAL. Being tried in some Latin American countries (illus.), 23; Bogotá, Colombia, reader proposes article, 549.

Self, Ida Mae. One of first tenants of Jacksonville's Brentwood Park project (illus.), 438.

Sellner, E. P.: Praises Journal article, 499.

SENIOR CITIZENS. Description of new HHFA report on how they live, 292. (See also Elderly, Housing for.)

Servaites, Francis X.: Meets with Venezuelan officials on housing problems, 184; Banquet speaker at NAHRO North Central conference, 271; Banquet speaker at NAHRO Pacific Northwest conference, 528.

Shanafelt, William A.: 169.

Shands, Rev. Alfred R.: Says urban renewal may stimulate parish "comeback," 559.

Shapiro, Salem S.: 548.

Sherman, Hugh: Accepts NAHRO Southwest Regional Council award to Lake Charles (Louisiana) American Press (illus.), 333.

Shirley, Marc: 171.

Shropshire, Grace M.: Praises Journal cover, 114.

Sigety, Charles E.: 352.

Silverman, Abner D.: Writes letter to editor on housing-welfare cooperation, 228; 289; (illus.), 569; The PHA story (illus.), 571.

Simkhovitch, Mary K.: Anti-slum crusader (port.), 435.

Simon, Grant M.: Describes work of Philadelphia Historical Commission in preservation of buildings in renewal areas, 424.

Singler, Edward S.: Explains Washington state supreme court decision on anti-discrimination in housing, 176.

Sioux City, Iowa. Reasons for receiving All-America City Award, 143.

SITE SELECTION. Public Housing Sites--renewal areas must provide more of them, 79; FHA to make study, 359; North Carolina supreme court sustains right of housing authority to choose site, 387.

SKID ROW. (See Slums.)

Slayton, William L.: (illus.), 10; Receives painting of Pittsburgh's Allegheny Center project from Governor David Lawrence, (illus.), 29; Keynote speaker at NAHRO codes conference (illus.), 198; Praises Hommann article on rehabilitation, 287; Session participant at NAHRO Southwest conference (illus.), 332; The Administrator's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding (port.), 365; Reader praises design talk by, 495; Addresses annual meeting of National Trust for Historic Preservation, 497; Approves use of renewal land for cultural centers; 520; Speaks to church groups on urban renewal, 560.

SLUMS. Alliance for Progress makes housing instrument of American foreign policy (illus.), 22; Letters to the editor on Journal issue on, 114; Excerpts from letters to the editor of an owner of "marginal property," 117; Monsignor Geary sees re-emphasis on housing in urban renewal, 204; Fresno city council approves attack on skid row area, 262; Chicagoan proposes confiscation for noncomplying slum buildings, 263; Baltimore uses housing clinics to train health and housing code violators in "urban" way of living, 321; New Detroit ordinance seeks to prevent development of new skid rows, 326; Reader says skid row Journal articles useful, 355; Poverty in USA is special challenge to public housing (illus.), 562; New Social Goals proposed for public housing for the 60's, 566; Nevada court says Reno project area no slum and stops renewal action, 590.

Slusser, Charles: PHA commissioner, 1953-1960 (port.), 439; Witness signing 1954 housing act (illus.), 443.

Smigel, Stanley: Participant in UN meeting on international housing (illus.), 180; (illus.), 781; 546.

Smith, Robert M.: 352.

Smith, Joseph P., Jr.: "Salesman" for government property in atomic energy communities (illus.), 59.

Smith, Venita: Panel member of NAHRO relocation workshop, 265.

Snyder, Alva W.: 172.

SOCIAL GOALS. A Sociologist suggests how his profession can help in renewal job, 32; Brandeis University sponsors meeting, 38; Social planning should be part of a CRP, 70; Economic analysis should be part of a CRP, 71; A Geographer suggests how his profession can help in renewal job, 83; Journal readers comment on series of articles re contributions of social scientists, 114; An Economist suggests how his profession can help in renewal job, 144; Journal readers comment on series of articles re contributions of social scientists, 177; Readers praise series on contributions of social scientists to renewal, 228; Ford Foundation gives New Haven grant to test new methods of solving urban social problems, 260; Baltimore's Housing Clinic substitutes teaching for fining housing code violators, 321; St. Louis Public Housing Study sets off "community development" try to meet a social needs (illus.), 472; Poverty in USA is special challenge to public housing (illus.), 562; New Social Goals proposed for public housing for the 60's, 566; The HEW Story, 570; The PHA story, 571.

SOCIAL SERVICES. Housing-Welfare team up to bring social services to public housing, 121; St. Louis Housing-Welfare Tie-up already under way; may be first "demonstration city," 123; Chicago Public Housing-Welfare Program Grows, 124; Lafollette, Tennessee Cites Experience in providing social services for public housing tenants; Roundup of local reactions to housing welfare teamwork plans, 126; Dallas Housing Authority stresses health, education, and welfare services to tenants (illus.), 127; Activities provided to public housing tenants (illus.), 192.

Soderberg, Richard: (illus.), 328.

Sofge, Haley: (illus.), 331.

Solace, Virgil L.: 6.

Solomon, Harry M.: 352.

South Carolina. Passes condominium legislation, 320.

Southern Building Code Congress. One of three national builders organization to form a National Coordinating Council, 584.

Sparkman, John J.: Introduces elderly housing bill in Senate, 295; Witness signing 1949 housing act (illus.), 441.

Spector, Sidney. Named by HHFA to committee on aged, 416.

Spence, Brent: Witness signing 1949 housing act (illus.), 441; Witness signing 1961 housing bill (illus.), 444.

Spreiregen, Paul D.: 172.

Squires, Fred H.: 224.

St. Louis, Missouri. Community improvement bond issues fail to get two-thirds majority vote, 73; Plans housing-welfare tie-up, 123; Missouri University provides recipes to recipients of surplus food, 192; Kiwanis sponsors toothmobiles for public housing youngsters, 192; Housing study sets off "community development" try to meet social needs (illus.), 472; Chosen as first city to get PHA-HEW "concerted services" demonstration, 475; To pay commissions to real estate brokers for sale of urban renewal land, 520; Problems of renewal land disposal in, 578; Low-rent housing week marks 25th anniversary of public housing, 586.

St. Paul, Minnesota. Tenants urge city to provide more public housing, 194.

Staehle, William L.: Seeks ideas for good design to use in planning and selling Gary, Indiana, renewal, 495.

Stamm, Charles: (illus.), 270.

Stanton, Glen: Praises Journal skid row issue, 114.

Starr, Dick: Praises urban renewal training, 177.

STATISTICS. Public housing in urban renewal areas, 80; Facts on public housing, 190; Report on construction, sale, and financing of one-family homes, 293; Housing Census Advisory Committee looks at information programs for housing, renewal, 244; NAHRO supports need for 1965 census of population and housing, 245; Status of Public Housing program, January 1, 1962, 427.

Steinmarch, Julius: (illus.), 527.

Stephanville, Texas. Voters say no to proposed public housing, 521.

Stern, Herbert J.: Evaluation of Baltimore housing clinic for code violators, 322.

Straus, Nathan: First federal housing commissioner, 1937-1942 (port.), 439.

Striner, Herbert E.: Praises Journal articles on contributions of social scientists, 228.

Stubbs, Rev. Harry J.: 289.

Stutsman, Don: 352.

Suffern, New York. Citizens say no to downtown project, 317.

Sullivan, Leonor K.: Witness signing 1961 housing act (illus.), 444.

Sutcliffe, William J.: (illus.), 389.

Swartz, Howard: Leaves NAHRO to become renewal coordinator for city of Oakland, 585.

Sweetwater, Texas. Voters approve first renewal project, 517.

Swibel, Charles R.: 410.

Swinney, Olive W.: (illus.), 569.

Sylacauga, Alabama. Renews Total Neighborhood with public, private, rehab housing; shops, services (illus.), 513.

Syracuse University. Offers undergraduate seminar on housing and urban renewal, 552.

T

Tabb, Tamara Danish: 8.

Taft, Robert A.: Sponsors public housing bill (port.), 441.

Tambor, Leonard: (illus.), 417.

Tarrytown, New York. Story of advance relocation planning (illus.), 259.

Tauber, Conrad: Praises Journal issue emphasizing research, 287.

TAXATION. Georgia court of appeals rules housing authorities must pay state sales tax, 87; Comments of Journal readers, 115; Dayton citizen group makes study of real property taxation and urban blight, 259; Kentucky circuit court says Louisville housing authority exempt from state sales and use tax, 387; U.S. court of appeals denies tax exemption of housing project bought for private use, 387; New York City gives tax benefits to owners who bring old buildings up to code standards, 584.

Taylor, H. Ralph: The Developer's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding, 369; Speaks on design in urban renewal at NAHRO Renewal workshop, 372; 411.

Taylor, Jack E.: Praises Journal articles on Community Renewal Program, 111.

Tearney, Thomas W.: 172.

TEEN-AGERS. Some services in public housing projects, 192.

TENANTS. Rent insurance plan offered by Minnesota mutual insurance company, 21; Golden Age Club orchestra "serenades" new neighbors in New York City McKinley Houses (illus.), 78; Two housing authorities try keysort for occupancy data (illus.), 153; Some services in public housing, 192; Roundup of tenant-sponsored projects, 193; Baltimore's Housing Clinic substitutes teaching for fining, 321; St. Louis to try to meet social needs of, 473; Dyersburg public housing resident gets local garden club award (illus.), 465; Roundup of "Christmas" activities for, 581. (See also Social Services.)

Tennant, William S.: 411.

Tennessee Association of Housing and Redevelopment Authorities. Annual meeting and election of officers, 45; Annual meeting and election of officers, 527.

TERMINOLOGY. Reader seeks help on planning glossary, 550.

Tesone, Silver L.: Named head of the design services branch of PHA, 15.

Thomas, Representative Albert: Quotes from questions to Robert Weaver re HHFA budget, 231.

Thompson, Walter W.: Elected president Pacific Southwest Regional Council (illus.), 269.

Thursby, Raymond: (illus.), 199.

Tietz, John W.: Praises Journal skid row issue, 114.

Titchener, Dorothy L.: Chairs workshop of NAHRO Middle Atlantic Regional Council (illus.), 272.

Toledo Metropolitan Housing Authority. Announces plans for marking public housing's 25th birthday, 117.

Toledo. Residents of housing project buy own school bus (illus.), 193. Celebrates 25th anniversary of public housing, 401. Single-family, scattered-site public housing successful (illus.), 464; Voters say no to six capital improvement bond issues, 517; Holds public housing week to celebrate 25th anniversary of (illus.), 586, 587.

Torrington, Connecticut. Breaks ground for downtown renewal center, 262.

Townsend, Dwight: Participant in UN meeting on international housing (illus.), 180. (illus.), 181; Named by HHFA to committee on aged, 416.

TRAINING. Workshop held in Providence on 1961 housing act (illus.), 11; Universities widen efforts to meet renewal training, research needs, 37; Harvard offers fellowships in graduate school of public administration, 38; Ford Foundation makes grant for training of federal officials, 56; Ford Foundation gives NAHRO grant to training managers of elderly housing projects, 57; First LPA trainees graduated, 106; Foundations offer fellowships for advanced renewal training, 109; Comments from readers on programs for housing and renewal positions, 177; Roundup story of housing and renewal curricula and special seminars, 291; Winners of Pittsburgh Plate Glass Foundation fellowships, 291; Seven New Yorkers complete LPA training program (illus.), 292; Rutgers University offers fellowships in field of urban affairs, 398; Louis D. Lasker Fellowship Trust seeks applicants for graduate study in housing, city planning, and urban renewal, 551; Pittsburgh Plate Glass Foundation seeks applicants for city planning and renewal graduate study, 551; Roundup of university extension courses in housing and renewal, 55; Roundup of training in housing and urban renewal--high school, undergraduate, and graduate, 552; HHFA conducts conference on renewal goals and progress for interns and LPA's (illus.), 553.

TRANSPORTATION. Mass transit legislation under study, 62; Planners and engineers agree on areas of responsibility for urban, 109; Kennedy sends transportation bill to Congress, 119; NAHRO executive director testifies on mass transit bill, 178; First 303 demonstration grant goes for Detroit study of effects of more frequent bus service, 247; House waters down relocation payment procedures proposed in highway bill, 295; Report to Senate on progress, 357; Roundup of HHFA financed demonstration studies, 358; Center to be built in Washington, D. C. renewal area, 380; Funds cut in 1963 appropriations bill for programs for urban transportation authorized in housing act of 1961, 428; Mass transit bill dies with 87th Congress, but funds to continue existing loan program to June 30, 1963, voted, 429; Prospects for highway relocation payments look up, 429; Highway Act of 1962 passed, including relocation payments, 501; Mass transit bill may be considered early in 1963, 555.

Triscoli, Monsignor Thomas P.: (illus.), 527.

Truman, Harry S.: Signs 1949 housing act (illus.), 441.

Tucson, Arizona. Council abandons urban renewal, 317.

Tucker, Raymond R.: St. Louis mayor proclaims a week to mark 25th anniversary of public housing, 586.

Tulsa, Oklahoma. City gets grant to experiment with subsidized, option-to-buy homes, 258; Gets a 207 low-income housing demonstration grant, 236; Experimental home ownership program to be financed via 221(d)(3), 318.

Twomey, James P.: Seeks reprints of history of public housing article, 495.

Tyree, Karl T.: (illus.), 331; (illus.), 393.

Tyrwhitt, J.: Ekistics editor asks to abstract Journal article on contribution of sociologists to renewal, 228. Ekistics editor asks to abstract Mayer article on 25 years of public housing experience, 550.

U

Umrath, Heinz: Participant in UN meeting on international housing (illus.), 180.

UNIONS. Labor makes concessions for Pittsburgh middle-income project, 129; Pension funds to be used for mortgages, 131.

United Nations. Sharpens focus on international housing problems (illus.), 180; News notes on housing and renewal activities, 184.

United Presbyterian Church. URA commissioner addresses seminar, 560.

United States Conference of Mayors. One of associations discussing federal-local issues at "workable program" meeting with HHFA, 230.

U. S. Housing Authority. Report on first completed projects (illus.), 437.

U. S. Government Departments and Agencies (See by name of department.)

UNIVERSITIES. Story of plans for cultural center in Pittsburgh, 316; Universities, Colleges operate as major force in local renewal programs (illus.), 503; Get federal help for expansion through CFA college housing loan program, 505.

University of Alabama. Birmingham renewal partner (illus.), 143.

University of California, Berkeley. Gets a section 207 low-income housing demonstration grant, 236.

University of California at Los Angeles. Sponsors conference on downtown business districts, 551.

University of Chicago. Sponsors seminar on future of northeastern Illinois, 37; Summary of conservation and redevelopment efforts, 507.

University Circle Foundation. Slum fighting efforts in Cleveland, 509.

University City, Missouri. Voters approve plans to develop renewal program, 517.

University of Colorado. Sponsors institute for study of urban planning for environmental health, 291.

University of Delaware. Sets up a division of urban affairs, 402.

University of Missouri. To offer a master's degree in community development, 291.

University of Pennsylvania. Graduate students to work on Philadelphia projects, 38; Institute for urban study gets Ford grant for study of relocation of elderly, 293.

University of Pittsburgh. Announces winners of Pittsburgh Plate Glass Foundation Fellowships, 291.

University of Virginia. Holds seminars in housing and renewal, 37; offers extension course in community planning, 551.

University of Washington. Offers course in preparation of graphic displays from EDP facilities, 291; Gets grant to study Seattle fair monorail system, 359.

University of Wisconsin. Urban training and research program gets under way, 37.

URBANIZATION. U. S. Supreme Court decision in Tennessee reapportionment case may help urban programs, 116; Ford Foundation gives New Haven grant to test new methods of solving social problems caused by, 260; University of Delaware sets up a division of urban affairs, 402; St. Louis to try to solve problems caused by, 473; White House conference proposed, 555. (See also Research.)

URBAN RENEWAL. ACTION-Housing may get Ford Foundation grant for work in Pittsburgh, 9; Data on loans and interest rates, 13; Story of architectural design competitions in Philadelphia, San Francisco, Washington, D. C., and Santa Monica (illus.), 17; Report of activities in Cleveland, Little Rock, and McKeesport, Pennsylvania, 28; Greenville, North Carolina, approve first project, 31; A Sociologist suggests how his profession can help in renewal job, 32; Universities widen efforts to meet renewal training, research needs, 37; Fallout shelter needs to be considered in Norfolk, Virginia, project, 78; Public Housing Sites--renewal areas must provide more of them, 79; A Geographer suggests how his profession can help in renewal job, 83; Letters to editor concerning use of architectural consultants, 111; Letters to the editor on Journal article series on contributions of social scientists,"114; Roundup of state legislation, 136; Court contested program in Austin, Texas, gets going, 142; Activities cited as basis for All-America city awards to three cities, 142; Downtown Worcester, Massachusetts project gets under way (illus.), 142. An Economist suggests how his profession can help in renewal job, 144; NAHRO 7th national working conference to be held in Eugene, Oregon, 152; International news notes, 184; Program announced for NAHRO division workshop, 200; In Alabama case U. S. district court rules renewal doesn't deprive citizens of rights, 205; Letters to editor on Journal articles on contributions of social scientists, 228; Urban Research has growing role to play in urban renewal, 233; The General Accounting Office performs housing, renewal role via spot-check audits, 249; Historic preservation via, 297; Roundup of referenda results, 317; Roundup of state laws on, 320; Report of NAHRO's seventh working conference (illus.), 328; James Richardson reviews work of NAHRO Renewal Division, 329; Journal issue on historic preservation via renewal praised by readers, 355; Journal issue on historic preservation praised by readers, 424; Agency officials report to Senate on program progress, 357; Wisconsin to study state's waterfront needs, 358; Winners of Ruberoid design contest announced, 361; Kennedy considers tour to look at need for urban renewal, 362; The Administrator's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding, 365; The Developer's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding, 369; The Planner's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding, 371; The Architect's Role in bringing better urban design into city rebuilding, 375; Pittsburgh voters approve bond issue, 376; Roundup of defeated bond issues, 377; Barnet Lieberman reviews role of codes administration, in, 479; Universities, Colleges operate as major force in local renewal programs (illus.), 503; Report on yes and no votes for urban renewal projects, 517; Roundup of use of renewal land for cultural centers (illus.), 520; Roundup of academic and in-service training activities, 551; Church participation and, 556; may stimulate parish "comeback," 559; Church groups seeking information of ways to participate, 560; Alcoa Urban Development Corporation purchases five projects from Zeckendorf, 580. (See also COMMUNITY RENEWAL PROGRAM.)

URBAN RENEWAL ADMINISTRATION. Participant in pre-application processing project in Baltimore, 45; New manual encourages use of architects in rehab work, 63; Gives 314 grant for evaluation of San Antonio homebuilders' low-cost houses as public housing substitute, 133; Summary of progress report for three quarters of 1962 fiscal year, 178; Report on work of program planning office, 238; Completely revises relocation requirements, 248; Official guideline statement on urban design, 368; Established new design position, 417.

V

Vacaville, California. City officials try to rescind redevelopment ordinance, 377.

Valentine, William R.: 224.

Vanderbilt University. Renewal partner of Nashville, 510.

Vander Wier, John: 225.

Van Doren, Claude: Participant in NAHRO Southwest conference (illus.), 332.

Vaughan, Dorothy M.: Comments on Journal issue stressing historic preservation, 355.

Vaughan, L. L.: 224.

Veteran, Anthony F.: Tarrytown, New York, mayor insists on advance relocation planning for renewal project (illus.), 260.

Vinton, Warren J.: 223.

Virginia. Defeats bill to add conservation powers to state housing and redevelopment law, 136; Passes condominium legislation, 320.

W

Wacker, Marilynn A.: Public Housing, Relocation--are these two programs working together?, 265.

Waco, Texas. City council votes for neighborhood renewal program, 517.

Wagner, Robert F.: Sponsors first public housing bill (port.), 435; New York mayor proclaims a week to mark 25th anniversary of public housing (illus.), 586.

Walker, Katherine: (illus.), 328.

Warnecke, John Carl: Marin County housing project architect defends design (illus.), 253, 255, 257.

Wasco, California. Voters turn down public housing mostly proposed for farm laborers, 521.

Washington Board of Realtors. Likes test of lease re-rent of private homes to large low-income families, 464.

Washington, D. C. Story of design competitions in southwest renewal area (illus.), 17; Gets first 207 low-income housing demonstration grant, 236; Gets demonstration grant to lease private housing for sublease to large, low-income families, 258; Study of skyline to be made and also of streets and places, 373; Redevelopers for renewal projects selected for good design, 379; Testing lease, re-rent of private homes to large low-income families, 464; Uses renewal land for cultural facilities, 520; Board of Realtors announces support for public housing and urban renewal, 522; Center for Metropolitan Studies holds conference on "The Teacher and the Metropolis," 553.

Washington Report. News concerning Presidential, Congressional, Administration action, 14; 61; 119; 178; 230; 294; 362; 428; 501; 554.

Watterson, Joseph: Comments on Journal issue stressing historic preservation, 355.

Weaver, Dr. Robert C.: Kennedy announces he would be appointed to new urban affairs department if created (port.), 7; HHFA director Announces plans to team up with HEW to bring social services to public housing (port.), 121; Keynote speaker at founding conference of the Canadian Council on Urban and Regional Research, 243; Speaker at banquet to announce first Tarrytown, New York, renewal project (illus.), 259; Quotes from testimony re HHFA budget before independent offices subcommittee, 231; Rumor abroad will leave HHFA and succeed Ribicoff as HEW secretary, 231; Rumor subsides as Celebrezze succeeds Ribicoff, 294; Addresses opening session of NAHRO's Middle Atlantic Regional conference, 388; Chairman new HHFA committee on aged, 416; Witness signing 1961 housing act (illus.), 444; (illus.), 445; Speaks to church groups on urban renewal, 560.

Wegg, Talbot: (illus.), 529.

Wehbring, Kurt J.: LPA trainee graduates, 106.

Weinman, Edward and (Mrs.): Among first tenants in Brooklyn USHA project (illus.), 437.

Weitzel, Frank H.: The General Accounting Office performs housing, renewal role via spot-check audits, 249.

WELFARE. Readers praise Journal issue stressing housing-welfare cooperation, 177; Journal editorial applauds HHFA-HEW plans for cooperation but expresses some concern over possible overemphasis on welfare in public housing, 103; Readers discuss housing-welfare cooperation in letter to editor, 227; Journal reader criticizes tie-in of code enforcement and welfare rental payments, 426. (See also Social Goals, Social Services.)

Western Reserve University. Renewal partner of Cleveland, 509.

Westley, California. Voters favor building 20 units of public housing, 521.

Whaley, Eric J.: (illus.), 389.

Wilkerson, Ernie: 169.

Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. Works with Wilkes College to improve community, 508.

Wilkes College. Gets federal help for college and community, 508.

Williams, California. Voters turn down public housing, 317.

Williams, Donald L.: Urban renewal design contest winner, 361.

Williams, Senator Harrison A.: Working on mass transit legislation, 62; Introduces transportation bill in Senate, 119; Suggests ways to meet the need for housing and urban research 235; Proposes White House Conference on Urban Problems, 555.

Wilmington, Delaware. Strengthens housing code, 326.

Wing, Hugh A.: 289.

Winnick, Louis: Chairman NAHRO Research Committee (illus.), 246.

Wisconsin. Gets 314 grant to study waterfront needs of state, 358.

Wolcott, Jesse P.: Witness signing 1954 housing act (illus.), 443.

Wolf, Gene: Praises NAHRO Journal, 499.

Wood, Edith Elmer: Public housing pioneer (illus.), 436.

Wood, Ramsey: (illus.), 246.

Woodbury, Coleman: Honored as housing pioneer (port.), 572.

Worcester, Massachusetts. Downtown renewal project gets under way (illus.), 142; Columbia graduate students preparing redevelopment plan for city, 552.

Word, R. H.: 54.

WORKABLE PROGRAM. (See Community Renewal Program.)

Y

Yale University. Starts program to help Latin American schools deal with housing and renewal problems, 37.

York, Pennsylvania. Historic preservation part of urban renewal (illus.), 310.

Z

Zeckendorf Property Corporation. Sells five renewal projects to Alcoa Corporation, 580.

Ziegler, Frances A.: (illus.), 527.

Zimmerman, Henry: 352.

Zito, Thomas W.: (illus.), 272.

ZONING. Kirkwood, Missouri, voters turn down rezoning proposal, 73; New York City replaces 1906 code with modern zoning resolution, 77; In new Pittsburgh middle-income community, 130.

PAGE NUMBER KEY TO JOURNALS IN VOLUME 19 (1962) -- January -- pp. 2-48; February -- pp. 50-100; March-April -- pp. 102-164; May -- pp. 166-216; June -- pp. 218-280; August -- pp. 282-344; September -- pp. 346-404; October -- pp. 406-488; November -- pp. 490-540; December -- pp. 542-600.